

“Three Scars: Quest for a Forbidden Planet”

By Max Smith

(On a planet where the primary colour is brown and the oceans are much larger than on Earth, and the lack of greenery is there to see clearly, there are humans in their numbers all working towards building a new civilization which has been forced upon them by their defeat at war. They have managed to build huts out of Curium, a solid metal which is purple on Curiumite. The cities are built on what looks like deserts and the cities are nameless and the hospitals are cleanly placed up the road whilst the office buildings are few and far between, the humans are back at year 0 and are trying to build their way back to normality. The sky is blue due to the high amount of water on Curiumite and the atmosphere is thick but healthy. The humans look happy overall and hard working to try and get back to normality. Rain drops rarely and the heat is just about liveable. The camera zooms out on the hard workers to show a man standing there watching them work hard and narration takes place whilst it shows the humans working away and the man is shown by the camera)

Drianna narrating- 15 years on from the war where we lost so many lives and came into contact with a race that tried to wipe us all off the universe. In our numbers we showed might, but no guile and that is how we ended up here, we lost our planet to the soulless of this universe but we have come out the bad guys, little did we all know that we would all soon be on a forbidden planet

TITLE shows as the camera reveals the man:

(The man is tanned and looks quite slick and watches on in his lieutenant outfit with the Portuguese flag all over it; he has styled hair and is smoking a cigar which is bigger than his thumb. He takes three puffs of his cigar before someone approaches him, a young human, aged 21 and is a soldier/builder on Curiumite; the young man is called Dreg)

Dreg- Mr Quiroz sir, how would you like these huts to be built?

Quiroz- How do you think Mr Dreg, similar to the last bunch of huts you built, we don't want state of the art we just want places to live and feed our young, the likes of flying cars and bacteria sized chips are more of a priority for our modern Curiumite (In a Portuguese accent)

Dreg- Ok so like them over there? (Points the huts)

Quiroz- Ah Dreg you ask far too many questions, why don't you start building those huts now hey, instead of standing there looking at me with puppy eyes and letting me down

Cash- Now Quiroz that's a bit harsh isn't it?!

(Cash appears behind him)

Quiroz- Ah Cash why are you here?

Cash- Oh Quiroz don't ask questions! Don't you remember I don't work like a slave

Quiroz- Ah yes I forgot you still live off saving Jared's life, you are still just a prisoner to me my friend so I suggest you be careful when you talk to me, ok?

Cash- Whoa Quiroz you sounded almost authoritative then ha-ha

Quiroz- Seriously Cash in no mood, go back and talk to Jared, reminisce in fact about the time thee saved the world with one's sister and an 'alien' go on, Jared's waiting, the old man hasn't got much time left to listen to the same story over and over again

Cash- Alright Quiroz, you know what don't be rude about it, I'll go, but all I'm saying is go easy on the people who now work for you, they voted you in, treat them with respect

Quiroz- Yeah Cash I hear you, now please... (Cash walks away to his car which is an old fashioned car used back in the 80s, the most basic model they could create everyone drives them on Curiumite and classical music has been replaced with old CDs of the Beatles and Elvis Presley. Quiroz turns to Dreg) Can you believe that guy, he always thinks he's making an impact when all he is, is an ex-convict who was in the right place at the right god damn time

Dreg- Yeah your right sir, but on the other hand he is experienced in the war, best to be on his good side, you know in case of an invasion

Quiroz- Don't worry Dreg my boy, it's all over the war, there won't be any invasion, I'm not stupid like Jared to even get involved with the aliens, this is our planet now, it's done and dusted now... get back to work... please (Cash is driving his car through the land of Curiumite on a road which isn't flat and consists of desert surrounding it with a wild animal in the distance an animal which is the only other land species on the planet that has been witnessed. Only shown in glimpses in the first film the Churoters (Their real name, Zebfish is what they are named throughout) as they name themselves are bizarre talking Zebra looking animals that have gills, which are the only land mammals and walk on their hind legs. Fish also exist but they are not seen and are similar to that of earth's fish. The plants that are mostly on Curiumite are Huge cactus's the size of trees. There is also many rivers in and out of the desert, the conditions on Curiumite are visibly strange due to its distance from its star and its large amount of hydrogen. Cash parks up outside the metallic hut made of Curiumite which has the large numbers 12 on top of it, people walk out of their houses to welcome him as he enters his father's house)

Cash- Dad... Drianna

Drianna- yeah, oh hey Cash, thought you were building today!

Cash- Yeah I was, but I came home, it's only voluntary isn't it at the end of the day

Drianna- 15 years to the day!

Cash- Since what?

Drianna- Since we landed here silly

Cash- How do you know? No one knows time here!

Drianna- Erm... my watch, long lasting batteries, I've kept a tally chart upstairs

Cash- Oh yeah, forgot about them, don't know what's the matter with me today, I'm not myself, I let that jackass Quiroz walk all over me today, don't know why, but look I dug up something, come see (He reveals a fossil of a fish shaped like a banana but with sharp teeth)

Drianna- What is it?

Cash- It's a really early fish from years ago evidently, but believe it or not this fossil is well more advanced than fossils we found on earth, this fossil to me says that Curiumite is well more advanced and historic than Earth, it would suggest the star is older than the sun as well, pretty cool

Drianna- Yeah (Doesn't know what he's on about) at least you feel at home here!

Cash- I don't, it will never be earth, it's too blooming humid here, I can never get used to this, and those weird Zebfish things, you know the zebra fish things, they're more bizarre than ghouls

Drianna- You haven't gone near one have you?

Cash- What no, of course not, everyone knows they're dangerous, I heard they killed a juggernaut when we got back from war 15 years ago

Drianna- I heard they're very intelligent too

Cash- They're not good are they, best avoiding them

Drianna- Although I've never seen them do anything other than their own business really, I mean we don't eat them or anything do we?

Cash- No, but we have fish it's a healthier diet I suppose (Smiles) their just a mystery to us all really, to be honest Drianna I'm still waiting to wake up from this dream anyway, nothings real here, nothing, where's dad anyway?

Drianna- He's upstairs having a shower, want an apple?

Cash- No, had one before they taste disgusting when they're grown in greenhouses

Drianna- Alright picky ha-ha

Steve (Father) - Cash shouldn't you be in work?

Cash- No came home early dad, too excited by my discovery, come sit down here I'll show you

Steve- Should I be excited Drianna?

Drianna- Oh its swell (Sarcastic)

Steve- Brilliant

(Shows later on in the night Steve cooking fish in the kitchen and as the fish cooks he passes time by going outside into the heat and fishing in his large back garden pond for more fish. Cash follows him outside; Steve is sitting down waiting for a tug on his rod looking glum and miserable)

Cash- 15 years ey

Steve- What... oh hi Cash, sit down!

Cash- Don't mind if I do... what are you doing out here?

Steve- Fishing!

Cash- What are you really doing out here?!

Steve- Just contemplating

Cash- What are you contemplating?

Steve- Just this anniversary of 15 years has got me thinking how I didn't help either you nor Drianna in your quest to find this planet, there's not a day that goes by I don't subconsciously consider it, but this time of year the regret grows stronger

Cash- Can tell you taught English ha-ha, but you do talk a lot of garbage

Steve- Thanks, just the way to speak to your father

Cash- Dad, you don't have to worry about us, we are adults... in fact you giving us a house to live in, or a hut on this planet as Quiroz insists we call it, that's a pretty cool thing to do, especially at my age, I mean what am I now 47, come on, I'm getting on a little bit now, you're too old to be getting stressed over the past

Steve- But I feel I should've done something

Cash- Dad, don't! You're late 60s now just relax, in fact maybe if you were there on Earth fighting for the planet you may have been killed and then what would we do, live with Jared, don't think so...

Steve- I'm proud of you son, I know you never did anything untoward when you were younger and if you did, you were just a kid anyway

Cash- I never did anything, but don't be proud of me, I just survived, that's all I did, Drianna was the brave one, I feel as if I should repay her, but I'll never find a way

Steve- You'll find a way son, you're a clever man, even after being in prison all them years, you still feel like my son, and that's special, when the time comes Drianna will need your help and you will save her, and I won't be proud, I'll just be proven right that you are my perfect little guy still. (Cash laughs and looks at the fish)

Cash- So how have you found your first 15 years on Curiumite?

Steve- Awful to be honest, you kids are keeping me alive, it's too hot, No meat, threats of invasion left right and centre, that idiot is in charge, Quiroz, and Jared before him was no better, surprised you saved his life tell you!

Cash- Dad!

Steve- I'm only joking, you did well saving his life... the truth is I miss your mother still to this day, on Earth your mother was there most of the time, she hasn't been to Curiumite once (Teary eyed)

Cash- I know, I know (Hugs him)

(Shows Quiroz in his large hut looking out over lots of water, a huge pond which is actually an ocean but unknown to humans as yet)

Trigger- Sir, you wanted to speak to me?

Quiroz- Yes don't be frightened Trigger come in, you are my assistant after all, don't fear me, love me, sit down

Trigger- What do you want sir?

Quiroz- I just want an update on what is happening on Curiumite, are we nearly finished with project 1.604?

Trigger- Ah yes, we have completed it, all huts are built in the western fields near the cactus trees!

Quiroz- Cactus trees? Have you not learnt anything, they are called the Quiroz trees, cactus trees! (Laughs) That's absurd. Quiroz trees! But anyway yes, that is good news, we can start on project 1.605 now can't we, the rebuilding project is taking shape

Trigger- What's 1.605?

Quiroz- Well we have hospitals, we have police of some sort, we have our army sorted in case of an attack, which won't happen... so all we need to do for 1.605 is to place people in their new homes and build, or begin to build huts on the east and tell some of them people to go out and search this pond further, it's been bugging me what's on the other end!

Trigger- What people?

Quiroz- The slaves dear boy, I mean the volunteers, those hard workers... you know get some Christians or religious folk who want to do good deeds or something

Trigger- Sir you're being racist!

Quiroz- Shut up boy, also can we get another routine check on the express please, we want to make sure it's working still

Trigger- For our imminent return to earth sir?

Quiroz- No, no, it was taken by robots have you been a sleep Trigger?! Check the blooming thing go on, get Sinister White on it or that Drianna, they know all types of stuff from the Great War, we need an express just in case

Trigger- Ok will do!

Quiroz- But for goodness sake Trigger do not mention our plans to Cash again please, that guy will try bring me down I can tell, he could be the death of me if we fail to stop him, I tell you no lie I'd have that nosey kid assassinated if he wasn't so loved by Jared, but oh well, don't mention anything to him, leave him to me

Trigger- Yes sir

Quiroz- Oh and do not touch any of the Churoters, they will kill warn the other workers, we can't emphasis enough of their power to kill humans in an instance

Trigger- yes sir, who are the Churoters again-

Quiroz- The Zebfish

Trigger- Oh thanks (He leaves)

Quiroz- Things are going well round here, Quiroz you've sorted it out, well done sir, well done

CUT TO: EVENING

(On Planet Earth 2084, robots are the prime rulers of the planet earth, animals remain but they are all wild, none are domesticated and none go near the robots out of fear. The world is more industrial and lacks vegetation compared to 100 years before. The buildings are taller and are more slick and modern looking, cars don't exist and roads have been replaced with quick conveyer belts that the robots use to transport. Every robot is working, even at night time the robots work away like soulless forms of life. The robots have copied human behaviour by giving women and males their own identity through hair. The Costerates work away on the taller building and the Fosterbütons direct the Zostergurons to build other important commodities around the world. The robots all listen to their leader however, Foster, who appears behind a Fosterbüton working away on building a quicker improved Curiumite express)

Foster- Ah Bert, how is the project Curiumite going?

Bert- I think its ok, we should be done in approximately 5 rotations sir

Foster- Good to hear, is it just Gert's working on this?

Bert- Yes as you can see, all of the female kind, all Gert's

Foster- And you Bert's?

Bert- We are telling them what to do

Foster- That sounds alright, we look like we are making progress, we don't want to make him disappointed

Bert- Him sir?

Foster- Yes, him, the man behind this war that we will win

Bert- But sir, what about you?

Foster- I am your leader, I am not the father nor brains behind the project. Where are the Costerates?

Bert- They are working up above (He points up to show them working high up on a building)

Foster- Ah fantastic! Have you been doing your research on Quiroz?

Bert- I know that he has prepared the humans for a long stay on Curiumite

Foster- Well that's impossible, they can only cope with that atmosphere for 34 years I understand and then they will die off

Bert- I don't know sir, I-

Foster- Of course you don't, you are a Bert, Bert's a stupid aren't they

Bert- hey-

Foster- It's the Gert's who will know more, you are actually quite useless aren't you, father would be ashamed

Bert- I'm sorry

Foster- Don't worry, just be prepared next to time

(He walks away and Bert looks on with his head down and looks emotionally upset)

(Shows Foster walking through a massive building with work being done on different types of machinery like a workshop, he approaches a Fosterbüton who immediately treats Foster with respect)

Fosterbüton- hello master

Foster- Please, Bert, sit down

Bert- Yes sir, anything master

Foster- What is this you are building?

Bert- A Posterlüton sir, impressed? (Small parasitic robots that are fired in a Costerates gun, they are mainly used to kill Ghouls, including XyYtes. They can also evolve into larger robots, called Duobüttons)

Foster- Yeah it's excellent, why is it not finished yet, the war starts in three rotations Bert

Bert- Well this is the last of thousands, they will be planted in the Costerates guns and they will kill all the ghouls and they turn into Duobüttons-

Foster- I know what they do Bert, but I want to know when you will finish?

Bert- Soon sir, give me one rotation, please

Foster- Preparation is key to battling the ghouls and human race, and we must win, we are not those heartless push overs anymore, we won the battle but we must win the war

Bert- yes sir

Foster- Where is Cooker?

Bert- He won't be finished yet sir

Gert- He is, he's through there!

Foster- Ah brilliant, Bert I suggest you take a leaf out of Gert's book, don't jump to conclusions my Bert, could get you killed

(As Foster walks into the room he has to wear protective gear to keep him safe from any malfunction in Cooker's creation)

(Foster walks towards the table slowly and the other robots surround the table too with guns in case of Cooker's malfunction, Cooker is underneath a blanket and a Zosterguron slowly unveils the blanket to show the new and improved Cooker (Cooker is now no longer human he is a large testosterone monster who has the capabilities of destroying a planets inhabitants, he can talk still in his normal accent but has a mask covering his now disgusting face, the mask is made of metal from the depths of the volcano on Iceland which is too strong for even Galle bullets to break through, he listens to only Foster and will destroy anything that hinders the quest for Curiumite slightly. They rename Cooker project Vorn, shortened to P-Vorn)

Foster- What will he awaken to?

Zosterguron- The name Vorn, or P-Vorn

Foster- P-Vorn, Vorn!

(Vorn wakes up with evil red eyes and lifts himself up and turns to Foster and stands up and is taller than all the robots in the room)

Vorn- Yes master

Foster- Ha-ha, he lives, you did it, he lives... show me your skill

(Vorn walks over to a Zosterguron and throws it against the wall and smashes it apart and Foster looks on in delight)

Foster- Well done Vorn, now you Gert shoot him with a Galle-bullet

(She obliges and Vorn can't feel anything and doesn't react)

Foster- He's ready, we are ready for Curiumite

Gert- Hey Vorn punch the wall (Vorn is unmoved)

Vorn- I respond to master only, when do we attack Stellioplaneta?

Foster- We don't, that ship has sailed, we will kill off the ghouls on Curiumite, we attack Curiumite however... in three rotations of the earth, so shall we get started with proceedings, punch your way out of the room Vorn

(Vorn obliges and destroys the room and all the Fosterbüttons outside coward away through fear and run away as Vorn blasts through the rest of the building)

destroying anything in his path and roars at the top of his voice and it shakes trees miles away and the birds fly out of the trees as a reaction to the noise they can hear)

Foster- He's ready! And so are we!

CUT TO:

(Shows a documentary on a screen which is seen through round the edges and very futuristic, it shows a ghoul watching it as it goes into detail of how Xylozone Quex became Xylozone Lopex, the ghoul is watching the screen in a large open space standing up with his family. The documentary is broadcasted for around 5 minutes and is similar to how the humans would create and narrate a documentary)

Narrator- Following the death of Xyrex, the great leader of the garth race, as well as the longest serving since the dawn of ages, his wife Xygail took charge (Shows pictures of each as the documentary progresses) she admitted to not getting used to the job and struggling to cope, after a while of growing used to the job she became obsessed with answering the public on quite how the ghouls would gain revenge for Xyrex's loss. They wanted to know in detail why he was killed and how, as well as which human killed him. Conspiracy theories began to circle after Xygail's reluctance to tell all. 12 years later and following the death of Xyrex, Xylozone, Xyrex's son was now old enough to take the reigns as the leader of the garth race. He was our new king, Xylozone came in with many new philosophies and new ideas, as well as up and close knowledge of the humans. His new ideas involved trying to bring together the two religions of Stellioplaneta. Xylozone had however also become obsessed with revenge, he wanted his father avenged quickly and he would stop... (Narration fades and a vibration is heard on the families alarm next to the screen which is a quicker way than knocking as it serves a warning that a person is coming to their house and is seen as safer. The Ghoul turns the screen off by clicking his fingers and answers the door to a XyY who walks into their kitchen and sits down to talk to the father of the family)

(The following conversation is in ghoul and has English subtitles)

Ghoul- Kids go to bed, go to your room!

XyY- Its ok Xyjin your children can stay in the screen room, beautiful children!

Xyjin- Thank you sir

XyY- Please, sit with me

Xyjin- Ok

XyY- (Breathes heavily throughout) You are aware of events that are happening, are you not?

Xyjin- If you mean the war, then yes

XyY- Brilliant, saves me time

Xyjin- Why you here?

XyY- Well, to tell you that you will be fighting in the war

Xyjin- But sir, forgive me but I don't want to partake in the war, I have mouths to feed

XyY- Xyjin, they're 11 billion ghouls on this planet, that's 22 billion hands, they'll be lots of food fed to your children, especially with that many hands

Xyjin- Sir, my children need a father figure

XyY- Wouldn't call you a father figure, how will your children react to when they find out their daddy never went to war, instead he stayed here claiming that he fed them, pathetic really

Xyjin- My father was killed in the last war

XyY- There were many casualties, many tragedies, I mean this in the nicest way possible, your father was just a number, he made no impact on the war really

Xyjin- Very blunt, but I don't want to go to war

XyY- How about if we killed you if you refuse?

Xyjin- Well then, I'd be obliged to consider

XyY- Perhaps we should use a more forceful way then

Xyjin- Perhaps

XyY- Listen Xyjin, I have a lot of homes to get to, I could do with you just signing the papers and going to war. Xylozone will be very disappointed if his army is not at its full potential

Xyjin- Xylozone is just out for revenge, let him sort it out is what I say

XyY- Oh dear Xyjin, are you losing faith in the garth religion or are you just trying to be different so I react in a more curious and humanly manner?

Xyjin- A bit of both, I was just watching a documentary actually

XyY- Oh I love documentaries, really brilliant insightful pieces of screening tell you everything, was it in English or Ghonguage?

Xyjin- English

XyY- Oh you are quite the clever one aren't you? (XyY gets a small ghoulish styled gun like in the first film and gets it ready under the table)

Xyjin- Yes, I'm an engineer, but I'm sure you know

XyY- Oh I more than know, why do you think I would be so keen for you to be in our army, we want this one this time, not go and lose, we don't want to bypass galaxies only to waste our time on a planet that isn't even worth fighting for-

Xyjin- Drink?

XyY- No my thirst was quenched before I came

Xyjin- Why are your hands under the table? (Smiling)

XyY- (Smiles) ah, very clever Xyjin, you think you have me, why would a shoot a prized asset of ours, it's a shooter (He places it on the table)

Xyjin- I don't want a shooter in my house

XyY- Well then shall we go outside and we can carry on our chat

Xyjin- No I'd rather go and finish my documentary

XyY- (laughs to himself) Well I can't argue, I tried, I was going to make an example of you, I was going to show the whole neighbourhood how Xylozone wanted to win this war and how extreme he'd go to get revenge, but you seem reluctant so tend to your children. Enjoy your evening

Xyjin- Ok thank you, you enjoy yours

XyY- (Stops at the door and looks at his hanging basket which is very red and purple, a predominant colour as a oppose to green on Stellioplaneta) Did you know that your flowers are-

Xyjin- What?

XyY- Are you not superstitious?

Xyjin- Yes we all are why?

XyY- Your plants are green, come look!

(Xyjin checks and more XyYs and ghouls jump on him and drag him to the middle of the dusty road along with his wife but leave his children in bed. Other ghouls come out of their house and panic slightly)

Xyjin- Let go of her! Let go of Xysue

Xysue- What's going on?

Xyjin- Everything will be fine, don't worry

XyY- (Same one as before) Yes Xysue, everything will be fine, listen ghouls, we have a coward, a man who won't fight for his planet, we had too many of them in the last war, well not anymore, no holding back this time, we will win this one, Xylozone's orders not mine. Go on Xyjin, explain to the neighbours how you refused to fight for them (Xyjin is speechless) just as I thought you can't, let this family be an example to you, cowards are not accepted in this religion, if you don't like then become a Ling, they'll be getting treated pretty similar soon, dispose of them

Xyjin- You can't do this!

Xysue- What are they doing?

Xyjin- I love you Xysue, I love you

CUT TO:

(Shows Xykol sitting down in a large room similar to that of Xyrex's in the first but even more futuristic. He is sitting with another assistant to Xylozone, Xyborth Trex who hates Xykol a lot and fears he has something to hide. Xyborth is A large hippo-shaped lizard throughout the film trying to prove himself worthy, but is very lethargic doing so)

Xykol- So what are you doing at the war?

Xyborth- Possibly fighting unlike you old man

Xykol- I don't need to fight, when you are as high up as me in the rankings, there ain't no need to fight.

Xyborth- I call that laziness

Xykol- Rich, very rich

Xyborth- Where you a soldier back in the last war?

Xykol- Of course, I fought long and hard for this planet and for Desiderata, to no avail.

Xyborth- What was Desiderata like, I was too young to go when it was happening?

Xykol- Nice, green, full of humans and robots, humans are a nice race, so are the robots when you get to know them

Xyborth- You talked to the robots?

Xykol- Of course not, I saw them from a distance (Xyborth looks at him curiously)

Xyborth- What humans did you talk to?

Xykol- This female, she was tall, strong, fierce, she could of won the war on her own she was that good

Xyborth- What was her name?

Xykol- Sinister, one day I said to her, I said to her if you wanna come Stellioplaneta, you come cause it's a lovely place, she deserves it

Xyborth- Is she pretty?

Xykol- Well she's a human so she can't be too attractive, she's not up to my standards in looks, but in personality, definitely

Xyborth- She sounds amazing, can I see her when she comes?

Xykol- Oh Xyborth, no... I don't want to scare her away!

Xyborth- What does that mean?!

Xykol- Why are you assistant by the way?

Xyborth- I'm of super intelligence, I built the first fast super computer, you know after stealing the ship on desiderata.

Xykol- Ah yes, the only thing the humans had over was a super computer, but what do you bring to war?

Xyborth- Well if you are going to a planet where no one knows where the heck they are going, they need coordinates, and a lot to building a computer is knowing coordinates.

Xykol- Surely there must be another reason?

Xyborth- I'm very good friends of Xylozone's.

Xykol- Well there you go-

(Xylozone walks into the scene and is at first unknown to the audience has his appearance has changed slightly. Xylozone has matured to look similar to his father however due to it being more futuristic he has a metallic suit covered with nitrogen liquid in case of human invasion and wears a mask made of nitrogen armour. He sits down in front of the two assistants and pauses for a while before his two XyY who escorted him take his mask off to reveal his face, he stares at both of them and points for the XyY to leave the room. Xylozone reaches over to a moving photograph on his desk and looks at it and places it down to show his Father playing with him in the large gardens of Scaleton (The large building they are in, in the scene))

Xylozone- Xykol... Xyborth, nice to see you both (Deep voice, much deeper than Xyrex and less posh, however it does sound like a slight sore throat)

Xykol- Xylozone

Xyborth- Hello sir

Xylozone- You all looking forward to father's revenge?

Xykol- Yes Xylozone I'm- counting down the days

Xyborth- When exactly is it sir?

Xylozone- Xyborth, you should know this, do you want to be caught flat footed by the evil men of Desiderata or what?!

Xykol- You fool

Xylozone- It's in Lopex year.

Xyborth- Are you sure we are ready for this?

Xylozone- You're a clever guy, you work it out

Xykol- he is right

Xyborth- Stop sucking up Xykol

Xykol- Beg your pardon

Xylozone- No Xykol is right Xyborth. At least he is prepared for this war, you on the other hand well, I can't say the same, take a leaf out of Xykol's book, he is more experienced and these days more trustworthy

Xykol- You know me Xylozone

Xylozone- Certainly hope so

Xyborth- Sir I was thinking this before, will you need either of us to fight at this war?

Xylozone- No, Xykol is too old and experienced to lose at battle, he deserves a rest, you Xyborth well you are more for the work in terms of tactics, I will fight but only when the time is right, when I have that Jared in my grasp and I shall rip his heart out and feed to Xyrant himself, in fact all humans will suffer, I will not be taken for a ride by any of these weaker species of organisms.

Xykol- What about if one was to come to our planet?

Xylozone- Xykol I'd expect a question like that from Xyborth, not you, of course not, they could do anything, they could kill us all just by being here

Xyborth- being a little bit sceptical?

Xylozone- No, they could do anything, I'd rather you died than bring one of them here

(Xyborth looks at Xykol worryingly)

Xykol- Just checking Xylozone

Xylozone- Why have you seen one?

Xykol- No, I was just wondering (Smiles)

Xylozone- You saved my life back in the day Xykol, and I need to look out for you if you see any human you tell me immediately and I will kill them for you

Xyborth- Wow how did you save sir?

Xykol- I kind of-

Xylozone- He protected me from the evil Jared, he shot my father and I was next, but Xykol ran me to freedom, I remember it clear as day, isn't that right Xykol?

Xykol- Yeah, he would've definitely killed him, I was just protecting him

Xyborth- Wow

Xylozone- You can learn a lot from Xykol

(Xykol looks relaxed and Xyborth looks curious)

CUT TO: BACK ON CURIUMITE

(Shows Cash and Drianna sitting in the lounge of their house reading a book each)

Cash- (Interrupts Drianna's reading) I feel like I should've gone with dad

Drianna- Oh cash don't worry about it, you went to the war memorial yesterday

Cash-I know but I feel an obligation to visit it

Drianna- Listen you don't need continuously have this great reminisce to prove you have a heart, you're fine not going to the memorial for one day, that's why other people are on Curiumite, to visit their own families at the memorial, don't worry

Cash- If you're sure- (knock on the door)

Drianna- I'll get it (She opens the door to Sinister White) Sinister?

Sinister- Hey girlfriend ha-ha

Drianna- Wow what a surprise, hello, how are you? (Laughing)

Sinister- Not bad, very tired

Drianna- I'm not, I'm not surprised how far have you travelled?

Sinister- I think it was around 3000 miles, don't forget how big this planet is Drianna- 3000 miles, ha-ha, let me guess did you use an express?

Sinister- maybe

Drianna- You lying... you're not tired

Sinister- Hey I can still be tired

Drianna- Come in, come in

(They talk in the kitchen after Sinister and Cash say hello to one another)

Sinister- So got some news for you, but keep to yourself yeah!

Drianna- Go on

Sinister- Well you know Xykol?

Drianna- Can't say I do

Sinister- The alien?

Drianna- Oh Xylozone, ah I love him

Sinister- What no, Xykol, the older one, the one who... I cant believe you don't know who he is Drianna- I just tried to repress the memories really. Anyway why?

Sinister- Well you know we kind of built up a nice friendship, and I really liked him, lovely guy-ghoul... well he has invited me to his home planet-

Drianna- Stellioplaneta?

Sinister- Yeah, just me, luxury tour all that

Drianna- Can I not come? How did you get an invite... what?

Sinister- yeah I leave well in a week, won't be back for around 3 months, you know it takes a while for me to get there and back so...

Drianna- That's a lot of galactic travelling it has to be said

Sinister- Yeah well, it'll be worth it

Drianna- I mean it's not even as if they share the same orbit, even solar system as us

Sinister- Yeah I know, it's pretty far, and will take a while to get there

Drianna- Just thinking you could really do with some nice company

Sinister- No you can't come Xykol worried that I'll blurt it out imagine if you came

Drianna- But of course you'll tell me all about it when you come back?

Sinister- Of course I'll tell you the unimportant stuff

Drianna- You know you really can be a pain the where the sun don't shine

Sinister- ha-ha

Cash- (Coming into the kitchen for a snack) Not disturbing am I... that was a good little saying that Drianna, how long you been working on that one?

Drianna- Shut up Cash

Cash- Sorry to overhear you and that, but I hear someone is going to a certain planet of enemies

Drianna- None of your business

Cash- Drianna its very much my business

Sinister- Typical Cash only interested in talking to me when he can get something or its slightly involving his majesty

Cash- Hey I'm just being intuitive on your conversation don't get short with me, god you women are all the same (Drianna throws a piece of food at him for his sexist remark) Hey I just worry about you Sinister you know that, don't want you falling for anything you know what Ghouls are like!

Sinister- You're a pig, their snakes you mean like you

Cash- Snakes maybe, wouldn't call me one though, anyway Sinister just be safe

Drianna- Will you get out Cash

Cash- Christ I'm going I'm going

CUT TO:

(Shows Steve looking on to the large Curium metal memorial with names of all victims of the war from the state of Arizona in which he came from and he looks on at names that share the same surname, presumably former family members, he looks at the dark clouds of Curiumite and Steve feels slight anguish)

CUT TO:

(On Stellioplaneta Xykol is waiting at the express stop for Sinister to show up, he purchases a rose bomb from the shop 'The little Siop', he throws the package on the floor to release the smell of a rose for her arrival)

Ghoul- Sir your human visitor is here!

Xykol- Brilliant

Ghoul- Would you like me to direct her to Xylozone or do anything sir?

Xykol- No, leave her to me, I'll show her round, thanks

(Sinister steps out and sniffs in the air and is taken aback from the heat)

Sinister- Wow its hot, and smells nice

Xykol- (Creeps towards her) You know that could be because of our climate and the fact I bought a rose bomb for you

Sinister- Xykol, I'd hug you but I'm sweating profusely, it's roasting here

Xykol- Yes Erm... we are certainly more adaptable species compared to you humans evidently, this is quite cold weather for us, please let me take your coat and hat

Sinister- Oh thank you

Xykol- You must be exhausted, you probably want to crack on with the tour I promised, did you learn any Ghonguage before you came?

Sinister- Yes I did (In Ghonguage)

Xykol- Ah- (In Ghonguage) very good Sinister, you have learnt well- Xylozone always likes a well behaved visitor, he'll like you if you do somehow meet him (In English)

Sinister- Oh how is Xylozone?

Xykol- He's the new emperor of our planet, the royal head as we call them

Sinister- And what are you?

Xykol- His er... his noble steed

Sinister- Good for you, so what's your job?

Xykol- My job at the moment is nothing apart from showing you round my wondrous and large planet

Sinister- Might I warn you I'm used to huge planets, now been living on one for 15 years

Xykol- Ah about Curiumite, it's still slightly smaller than ours sorry

Sinister- So the robots got the raw end of the deal on earth-

Xykol- Shhh... don't mention Desiderata or earth as you humans call it, many people died prematurely before their death date, that's a serious thing on this planet, be quiet about that warzone of a place

Sinister- Hey you started the war!

Xykol- That's like suicide saying something like that, don't be so ignorant, especially when Xyrex lost his- lost his life there

Sinister- I forgot about that, anyway don't worry I won't mention it

Xykol- And if Xylozone or Xyborth get hold of that talk they'll immediately kill you and won't be any less hostile to me, so keep (signals her to be quiet)

Sinister- Ok so how do we transport here then?

Xykol- How do we travel you ask?! Ever seen on of these (Point at what look like a sewage lid in the road) I'm sure you had them on...

Sinister- desider-

Xykol- Stop saying it! Please, and of cause you have them on Curiumite, again though keep that quiet, Xylozone doesn't like that type of stuff being mentioned, you know human stuff

Sinister- Ok that will be hard though as I am, you know

Xykol- yes well for now anyway keep quiet, now these, we call them Gauge lids, they are actually tunnels that almost slide you to where you wish to go

Sinister- Sounds fun

Xykol- Oh no, it's not fun, actually its very annoying, it is rumoured to cause back pains when older and anatomy becomes very disfigured as well as gravitational pull being heavily affected by over usage

Sinister- I have no idea what that means, why build it then?

Xykol- It's the most efficient and atmospherically friendly way of travel, we don't wan to ruin our atmosphere now do we (smiles)

Sinister- Very funny (sarcastic)

Xykol- Banter as you call it (Smiles)

Sinister- I must admit it is beautiful here, the air, the colours, the various smells

Xykol- That's our Xysnill-bomb selection, they are very handy, there are a range of smells that these packages release and they add positive Nitrogen to the atmosphere, which reminds me, sorry, put this on (Gas mask) There you go, and there is a range of smells, oak, bonfire, rose, liquorice, coffee, yeah we have that here and my favourite methane ha-ha

Sinister- Listen we came up with those years ago, we call them stink bombs... so where are the cars or hover crafts or whatever?

Xykol- We don't have them, we used to but to save energy we decided to go backwards on our technological advances, come with me, all we Ghoul's use is the Gauge's look around, there's loads just on this road alone, ready (She nods and they go through the gauge and it shows them travel through it at a quick speed, it's a small tube that allows you to slide around in a wheeled cart and they pass people going the other way like an underground road)

CUT TO:

(Shows Xylozone in his office again like before with Xyborth sitting there slobbish talking to him)

Xylozone- You don't do much do you?

Xyborth- Sir I'm just waiting for orders, you say you wants me to be your computer guy, the guy behind the tactics, there's no war yet

Xylozone- You're right, well observed, there's no war yet. Xyrant and my father would be disappointed in me wouldn't they?

Xyborth- Listen I don't really want to be the guy who influences your decision, I'm not Xykol

Xylozone- Sorry, don't you dare criticise him need I go through how he saved me again

Xyborth- No, seriously I'll pass

Xylozone- The great Xyrant would be very disappointed in this lack of action, my father has to avenged quicker you're right

Xyborth- I never said-

Xylozone- We need to kill them humans, we need to destroy them to the ground, make sure that race never ceases to challenge us again, if I so much as to come to contact with a human I will

Xyborth- destroy them and kill them, you say this all the time Xylozone

Xylozone- You're right time to take action

Xyborth- I never said that

Xylozone- Xyborth get off your backside and get me some Yabbies, if we are to destroy the human race, we are gonna need all the alien help we can find, oh and get me some Lings

Xyborth- They will never ever fight for us

Xylozone- Destroy their families if they don't, and if they fight kill them too, lets up the ante, get some women to fight too, I don't care what religion they are who they are, how big they are, just go round up some more troops!

Xyborth- Sir I'm going to stop you there, perhaps we should not be too hasty and get Xykol in and ask him about it see his opinion and then we know what we should do, he's more experienced after all.

Xylozone- Perhaps that would be better, but the idea of war with the humans is growing stronger and Curiumite as a planet will hopefully inhabit no more come the end of this sure war.

CUT BACK:

(Shows Xykol and Sinister exit the Gauge-lid and Sinister walks over and stares out at something unknown to the audience but judging by her face, the sight is amazing)

Sinister- Wow

Xykol- Oh that old thing, it's just a religious thing

(It reveals a huge gate which looks frozen in time as it looks out of place with all the new technology. The gate is around 80 feet tall and 120 feet wide)

Sinister- What is it?

Xykol- It's what we like to call a distinguisher, or (distinguish in Ghonguage) to us, it separates the two types of ghouls on this planet, religion is possibly bigger here than on your planet, and on the other side of the gate the Ling ghouls live, I there islands, they have no idea of the technological advances this planet has made

Sinister- What are you then Xykol?

Xykol- I'm a garth of course, shall we move on anyway, I got some lovely pyramids to show you

Sinister- Pyramids? Wait there, tell me more about the religions, what are they, you know we told you all about Judaism and Christianity, be straight with us, or me

Xykol- (Deep breath) You'll have to sit down this talk may take a while

Sinister- Well... shorten it then (Smiles)

Xykol- (Smiles back) Ok- Garth's are similar to your type of being, straight forward, simple, nice, and they worship?

Sinister- God

Xykol- yes well we don't have god, we have Xyrant

Sinister- Did he have disciples?

Xykol- What, no he didn't... Garth is the most predominately believed religion. It is led by the god of emperors, Xyrant, the isles that believe this religion are, Xyroyal and the massive continent of Xyqueue, where most Ghouls inhabit.

Sinister- Ok, don't them places but go on, what's the story behind this Xyrant?

Xykol- Just to be clear, crime doesn't happen on this planet, because of these religions, ghouls live in harmony as a strong unit

Sinister- We could learn something from you

Xykol- (He reads it off the gate as it is in the Ghoul's own hieroglyphics) I'll explain garth to you, the story of garth is that the universe has is led by a ghoul, called Xyrant, who travels the planes of the universe communicating with all different races trying to bring peace, however he was killed by a rare race, Hillophers, they are however an urban legend by the way, that's what I believe anyway, afterall they've never been seen or heard, only believed in, we are raised to believe that when they meet these Hillophers, ghouls will die from an apocalypse, however, Xyrant's son, Garth, the special one, can be the ghoul to save them all from the Hillophers. Xyrant was actually believed to be killed by his own brother who had betrayed him for the Hillophers and was going to now kill Garth at some point. Who garth is unknown, but apparently if you believe hard enough you'll meet him when you... you know go!

Sinister- Pretty deep, who do you think the Hillophers are?

Xykol- Couldn't tell you, they're certainly evil

Sinister- Ok and the Ling's who are they, what's there story?

Xykol- Ling's are... (Disturbed by message sent by Xylozone, it shows him pop up and tell him something as an artificial version that only Xykol can see) sorry about this, just one second

Xylozone- Hey Xykol where are you? We need an important decision from you pronto, thank you, the humans are the subject

Sinister- hats the matter?

Xykol- Nothing, anyway where was I? Ah the Ling's. Most ghouls from, Xylopoloas, Xypole, Xylight, Xytropoloas and Xytwinpoloas support Ling as the truth. Ling is followed mainly by cult grouped Ghouls who speak a different language; they say Bq (beak) instead of Xy. They struggle to pronounce the Xy sound, and try to distance themselves from the emperor system of Stellioplaneta. Ling is the religion that is the story of the god Bquint, who was a powerful ruler of Stellioplaneta and all though loved being powerful and greedy, and was a sinful god, he was never a supporter of war, hence the togetherness of Stellioplaneta, despite different religions. Bquint was a god who was not well liked and was soon killed by the Bquint Quex, who wanted to separate Stellioplaneta for good, and was annoyed of his friend Bquint for being peaceful yet sinful, hence the building one day of the gate you see before you. The people of Stellioplaneta turned against Bquint Quex and those who killed him and remained happy about the situation are called Ling believers, the unhappy ones are presumed to follow Garth, more ghouls preferred chaos than peace judging by the number so believers, however wars don't happen due to the Ling religion and the garth religion keep themselves to themselves, so we don't ever cross this distinguisher.

Sinister- Wow so that's the religion of Stellioplaneta? That's quite cool

Xykol- It also very important, without it we'd be as bad as you people, not you of course though, you are special (Smiles)

Sinister- Arr thanks, so these pyramids?

Xykol- Ah yes of cause, the pyramids, do you know what they actually are?

Sinister- Nope

Xykol- They were created by us on your planet years ago, they were a meaning of war, but if anything it halted the great wars advances. We have the biggest pyramids in the universe here, I'll show you one on the way back, take my hand (She holds his hand and they walk back together)

(Sinister and Xykol say their goodbyes at the express and they have one last chat)

Sinister- Bye Xykol, thanks so much for this

Xykol- Not at all, and tell your humans, but be careful whilst doing so of course, we don't things to get out of hand do we?!

Sinister- Yeah don't worry about (She steps on the express)

Xykol- LOVE YOU!

Sinister- What?

Xykol- I... love you

Sinister- Oh Xykol, I'll see you around perhaps

Xykol- I hope so (waving) I hope so

CUT TO:

(Shows Cash walking into a large building that holds the leader of the humans, Quiroz, Cash slowly walks past the guards on the doors and invite him in eventually)

Cash- Hi Quiroz

Quiroz- Oh for goodness- hello Cash, can I help you?

Cash- Yeah just wanna know what you're playing at really?!

Quiroz- Listen if you're gonna do this get out of my office, like I said go complain to Jared he seems to care what you say, go on beat it

Cash- You can't keep ignoring me, another war is bound to happen and you seem to be more focused on properties than development towards fighting this war

Quiroz- Development, you wanna talk to me about development, that's what I'm doing, trying to rebuild our futures, if you can't see that then you must be as blind as your old man

Cash- So when a war comes what do we do, what's the plan of action?

Quiroz- There won't be another war-

Cash- You're very ignorant

Quiroz- And you're a criminal that's lucky to be out of jail, so beat it before I put you back into our newly built Curiumite prisons (Smiles)

Cash- I fear you're going to be proven wrong

Quiroz- Why you still here? Listen I'll get my guards in you can talk to them if you like, just because you have some obsession with my job

Cash- It's got nothing to do with that, it's to do with you lack of caring for a, I wouldn't even call potential war because it is going to happen

Quiroz- I won't ask again, get out!

(Cash leaves)

Quiroz- (He presses a button on his desk to talk to one of his guards) don't let him in here again please, every week that guys in here, if he comes near again arrest him, thank you

CUT TO:

(Shows Jared pouring himself a drink unknown due to it being a Curiumite delicacy and talking to Cash)

(Jared is now an old 69 year old man who has almost given up with conflicts with Cash or anyone else as he is no longer leader of the planet of humans)

Jared- So he didn't find your visit enjoyable

Cash- No Jared

Jared- Why would he, you run into his office like he has no authority and shout the odds at him, that's not how it's done Cash

Cash- I need to make a point

Jared- There's ways of doing though (Struggles to sit down)

Cash- Nice place you got here by the way

Jared- Well I was the leader for some years it wasn't gonna be a rubbish tip was it, now what you should have done is explain to him the reasons rather than shout a war will take place, I'm sure he has that in the back of his mind all day and you bringing to his conscious isn't gonna make him see sense.

Cash- Do you think this war will take place?

Jared- It won't be a war, it will be an attack, we aren't prepared enough for it to be a war, the ghouls will almost certainly come for us, and for me, and the robots, they can do anything, we don't know what they are thinking only Klaus knew that unfortunately

Cash- If only you didn't shoot Xyrex hey?!

Jared- You have no real idea of what happened that day so I would stay very quiet about it

Cash- Jared you can tell me any secrets

Jared- I've said too much as it is, bottom line is, it's too late for us to fight them, all we can do now is escape the three scars (hands him a drink)

Cash- Oh thank you

CUT TO:

(Xylozone is staring at a picture of his father again and looks up to guests in the form of Xykol and Xyborth)

Xylozone- Ah Xykol, where have you been?

Xykol- Just thought I'd venture out

Xylozone- Anywhere nice?

Xykol- Nope, not really just that little place I took you when you were about twelve, you know the gate

Xylozone- Oh yeah cheers for that day

Xykol- It's alright, is that your father again?

Xylozone- Yeah

Xykol- It's upsetting isn't it, wanting almost needing revenge for being betrayed, destroyed, broken hearted, undermined, I know the feeling

Xyborth- How?

Xykol- I've lost relatives as well Xyborth, what's he like, so insensitive?

Xylozone- Anyway, I've called you in here to make a very important decision Xykol... Firstly do you think we should actually kill the humans, is it worth attacking them?

Xykol- Yes absolutely, destroy them all, they'll never expect a war, they'll be so unprepared

Xylozone- Wow, ok, want expecting such a reaction, let's go for it then

Xykol- I mean think of the revenge, your father would want you to kill Jared, let's do it for your father, no robots there to distract us from the task at hand of course, Xyborth can stay here and think of tactics

Xylozone- Actually in that case, I won't ask the second question, can you go and get the Yabbies from Ramachan for me

Xykol- Yeah absolutely, this will be a great decision Xylozone

Xyborth- Seems very keen

Xylozone- No he's just passionate, always has been like that, so then we have our ghouls rounded up its time for a few Yabbies and we are going to war my Xyborth

CUT TO: CURIUMITE

(Shows Sinister touch down on Curiumite via the express, she is escorted out like a celebrity as the humans know that she has been to Stellioplaneta and she may have secrets to tell, however she keeps quiet as she promised Xykol she wouldn't tell anything, and she doesn't think there's anything interesting to tell anyway, she is met by Quiroz and Dreg)

Quiroz- So then Sinister, how was the Stellioplaneta experience, reason for concern?

Sinister- Not at all, as far as I know there was no attack mentioned

Quiroz- So there's nothing to worry about?

Sinister- Don't think so sir

Dreg- Doesn't sound very positive, what were you doing there?

Quiroz- Oh stop being so intrusive Dreg, everything's fine we can crack on with development now, that cash boy can shut his mouth and stop undermining me

Dreg- Sir I would have to disagree with your-

Quiroz- My what... philosophy how dare you

Dreg- Ok sir, just saying be careful, you never know what they're thinking

Quiroz- Yes well it is very hard to keep a war hidden isn't it now, I'm sure Sinister would've seen something

Sinister- (Yawns) Anyway I'm tired, I'll maybe be more aware tomorrow when I've had sleep

Quiroz- Ah of course sleep, you have some sleep, thanks for doing a report for us

Sinister- It was nothing really, I was gonna go anyway, me and Xykol have a thing (Smiles)

(She walks away)

Quiroz- That's disgusting (laughs to Dreg)

Dreg- Call me prejudice but that ain't right, is that who Cash has a crush on ha-ha

Quiroz- Don't be prejudice, not on my watch, so Cash has a crush on her does he?

Dreg- Yeah you should see the way he stares at her, its icky if you ask me

Quiroz- What are you eight, icky, really?

(Dreg is embarrassed and the scene continues to Sinister visiting Drianna again with Cash in the kitchen talking with them this time)

Sinister- Oh he was so attentive to me, he's just a genuine guy you know

Drianna- He sounds it, he sounds romantic as well

Cash- He sounds a bit too good doesn't he?

Sinister- Sorry?

Cash- Well you know, he isn't human so maybe he's trying to over compensate, I don't know

Sinister- you know what cash sometimes (She tuts)

Drianna- Anyway, what was it like there?

Sinister- Beautiful, much better than here, it's a bit- doesn't feel like home here, it felt like home there immediately

Cash- That good really?

Drianna- Sounds amazing!

Sinister- yeah they seem really peaceful now as well, they're run by Xylozone you know him obviously, and yeah if anything I'd call them allies rather than enemies these days

Cash- Really? Well how ignorant are you?

Drianna- Cash not now!

Cash- No, what because you went there with a ghoul who can't do anything wrong, who's perfect in every way therefore you rule out any slight thought of war that may of conceived in our heads, no! Just no!

Sinister- Well Cash I went didn't I, not you, so shut up you don't have a clue about anything

Drianna- Let's stop girls please

Cash- Listen I'm gonna leave it there to be honest, I'm done, I'm going out for a walk, be back later Drianna. Good bye Sinister

Drianna- Ok, see you Cash (Mimes 'sorry about him' to Sinister and the door slams shut) He's been stressed, Quiroz has annoyed him a lot recently, he won't listen to him

Sinister- That's because what he says is, hopefully this doesn't come to bite me, is wrong, there won't be another war with these ghouls I can almost guarantee it

CUT TO: STELLIOPLANETA

(Xykol walks in on Xylozone talking to Xyborth, Xykol has collected some Yabbies to prepare them to fight with them at war)

Xylozone- So have you rounded everyone up for war?

Xyborth- I'd call it more of an invasion to be honest, but yeah we have rallied everyone up nearly to fight for us, including, you'll like this, some Lings.

Xylozone- Good, tell you what we do need, some good old fashioned masks, it won't be the same as on Desiderata, there isn't enough Nitrogen on Curiumite

Xyborth- Really how much is there?

Xylozone- You're the stats man Xyborth you should know! Around 22%, its mostly oxygen on Curiumite

Xyborth- To be honest, you don't need a mask do you (He points at Xylozone)

Xylozone- I suppose you're right, my mask already gives me the capability to breath in any planet I want

Xyborth- that wasn't an invite to show off

Xylozone- Don't worry, you'll get one too

Xyborth- I don't need one (confused)

Xylozone- Oh of course, sorry (They are interrupted by Xykol with the Yabbies)

Xykol- Did someone order some Yabbies to take down the human race?

Xylozone- Well done Xykol, bring them to me!

Fred- Get your hands off me (Ghoul lets go) And my cousins thank you

Xylozone- Listen here you little insect freak-

Fred- My names Fred, I was very, I'd say close friends with your father, but I wasn't really

Xylozone- Fred- You're still alive, when do you things die for goodness sake

Fred- I'm only 240 years old (looks baffled by Xylozone's query)

Xyborth- Sorry only 240 years old

Fred- Ok who are you? (Xyborth looks offended) Yeah if anything, I'm 240 years young, pardon my human

Xykol- Listen you little, if you don't show more respect to the boss then we will have you killed

Fred- Oh yeah because you are our allies, I see!

Xylozone- Ignore the aggression Fred please, we could really do with you fighting for us, you must hate the humans too?

Xykol- Of course they do

Fred- Why would we, they ain't done nothing to us

Lou- There was that time in millennium 52, recall? (Lou is the Yabby to the left, and Kyle is the one to the right of Fred)

Kyle- Oh yeah, I remember that

Fred- When did the humans ever attack Ramachan?

Lou- No not Ramachan, one of our men in the continent of Africa, remember the pharaohs, they killed him

Fred- Lou, you weren't born then!

Kyle- But I was

Fred- No you weren't, none of us were, we were born 200 years after that event, just shut up!

Xylozone- my word these are stupid, but you have incredible strength, and incredible building brains

Kyle- were also very resilient

Lou- And we hate the humans

Kyle- We just established we don't didn't we?

Fred- This is why I don't let you talk in meeting with the ghouls, you make us live up the stereotype of being dumb, we don't hate the humans no, but we are attacking them because we love our allies (Smiles at Xylozone)

Xylozone- That's a good choice, so you'll fight?

Fred- I don't think we have a choice do we?!

Xylozone- What? (Confused)

Xykol- No they certainly do not

(Shows Ghouls outside with their weapons pointing at families of Yabbies all sitting down panicking)

Xylozone- So its settled, you are on the ghouls side? (He places his hand in front of Fred waiting for a reply)

Fred- (Thinks) Yeah (He combines his little finger out of two on his hand in a lock with Xylozone's hand as a symbol of them being a team)

Xykol- Oh and Fred, can we use your planet? (Smiling)

Fred- (breaths heavily and regretfully) Yes, what's mine is yours

Xyborth- Doesn't sound too convincing

Xykol- Sh... why Xyborth?

Xylozone- So then, we attack in a few weeks, and we keep our weapons on Ramachan, and you can stay here and we will supply hospitality for you where the Lings live

Xyborth- You're not suggesting civil war are you?

Xylozone- No of course not-

Xykol- If it's necessary though, we might do

Xyborth- Hang on who's in charge here?

Xylozone- He's right though, if they refuse that's invitation of war, Fred get your race to build an air force so mighty the humans will be unable to combat it

Fred- We'll get on it now

(Shows the Garth ghouls, XyY and XyYtes invade the huts of the Ling ghouls and begin to destroy their homes and take away their children and invade them, the scene lasts for two minutes and it shows the garth's rapidly take control of the islands of the Lings)

CUT TO: Curiumite

(Late at night it's pitch black apart from some small homes to the humans which have electricity shining, but minimal. In the sky a meteor shaped object floats through the air and slowly lands towards Curiumite, the comet lands on land but from a distance is Cash's house and he is looking out of the window shaped hole towards the distant meteor and he looks interested by it, he walks to Drianna to wake her up and Drianna sluggishly wakes up)

Cash- I think I just saw a meteor, wanna go examine it?

Drianna- Oh Cash, you get them here

Cash- Even more reason to go and explore

Drianna- Ok, fine whatever, tell dad though

Cash- We're not 10, we can do as we wish

Drianna- Fine, let's go then

(Shows them walking over a hill and look just over it to see the meteor is in fact an express from earth, nothing has exited it yet but Cash panics and Drianna wonders why)

Cash- Robots!

Drianna- What?

Cash- They're invading us, run... RUN! (They both run together with Drianna still showing slight confusion)

(Over the hill appears a Fosterbūton and it looks at them both in the distance and aims to shoot them but they run away just in time, the robot uses three Galle bullets to get them but they stay away from death)

Drianna- Oh my god, what do we do?

Cash- Erm... get in the car, where going to Quiroz, I'll get dad, wait in the car

Drianna- Hurry we haven't got time

(Shows Cash run into the house and wake up Steve, Steve is the same as Drianna sluggish and unawares, but is awoken by an explosion just outside the house which worries Cash)

Cash- Oh god Drianna! Dad come on (They run downstairs, Steve is in his PJs. They get outside through the back door and Drianna is driving past quickly and picks them both up and drives as quick as she can and people on the road are put off by her quick speed and are unaware of what is happening)

Drianna- Should I go into flying mode?

Steve- Yes

Cash- No don't, we wouldn't want to give ourselves up would we

Drianna- But where gonna crash-

Cash- We won't just keep your eye on the road...

Steve- cash look (He points at more meteor shapes landing on Curiumite)

Cash- Oh my word, Drianna, just try and get us to a safe place

Drianna- What about Quiroz, he needs to know

Cash- I think he already does (One of the large express's flies over their car and goes to land right in front of them and they swerve off road and drive into the hills) Drianna, dad, do we have weapons in here?

Drianna- Check under the seat!

Cash- There's none here, what about the back?

Steve- cash I don't think we have time to stop and check (Robots are running right behind them it shows when Cash looks behind to see if getting to the back is possible)

Cash- Dad get down, Drianna drive low! Is there a pistol or anything at the front?

Drianna- Cash pistols haven't been round for years, there's a Frier!

Cash- A Frier, oh just give me it (She passes him it and he smashes the back window of the car with his foot) Ok now go into float mode (He looks to Drianna and smiles)

Drianna- (She concurs and obliges) Where we going?

Cash- Sinister! (He begins to shoot the Frier which releases Aqua bullets which splash the robots away and cause them to malfunction and breakdown) So it's a water gun?

Drianna- Nope, wait!

(The water then turns solid rock before exploding into a rocky mess on the floor)

Drianna- Cool ey?!

Cash- And you didn't think about telling me how good this is? (Confused and he keeps shooting and destroying the robots that track them through the mountains) Turn up the gradient!

Drianna- How much?

Cash- try 20%

Drianna- it won't go higher than 19%

Cash- 19% then damn it

Drianna- yes sir

Steve- I'm... so confused

Cash- As are we dad, as are we (Drianna looks on ahead at all the explosions and begins to fill up and get teary eyed)

Drianna- Not again

Steve- its ok Drianna, you made through worse than this, look out (Shows a Costerate shoot a Posterlüttons on to the vehicle window, Posterlüttons are Small parasitic robots that are fired in a Costerates gun, they are mainly used to kill Ghouls, including XyYtes. They can also evolve into larger robots, called Duobüttons)

Drianna- Oh my god shoot it, shoot it (Cash tries but can't hit it)

Cash- I can't it's too small, the windows smashed just grab it (Drianna grabs it and although the robot bites her on the hand she throws it out of the vehicle and as it lands on the ground it turns into a Duobüton, a more evolved robots from the Posterlüttons; they are large versions of the Fosterbütons with no loyalty, and are frequently seen shooting their own kind, this is due to their accidental encoding on their chip that makes them more of a hindrance than a help) What robots was that?

Drianna- The little thing bit me

Steve- yeah and it became huge, let me take over Drianna you are hurt

Drianna- No you don't know the way, the fight is over I'll get us to Sinister's; just get me a band aid!

(Shows Cash looking out the window breathing heavily)

Cash- Does she have weapons there by any chance, I think the Frier might run out soon

CUT TO:

(Shows Quiroz looking out of his window to his lake and in the distance explosions are happening and he drops his head due to displeasure of the situation)

Quiroz- Dreg, I fear we may have to fight them

Dreg- Do you want me to tell people?

Quiroz- I don't know, I just don't know, I was never expecting this!

Dreg- What about the aliens?

Quiroz- The ghouls will never help us, they're enemies

Dreg- No are they invading as well?

Quiroz- You sound just like Cash

Dreg- No I sound like I'm talking sense, maybe it's time to stop ignoring the evidence, this modern Curiumite you're trying to build, it's just a fantasy, we'll never make it like earth, the technology if anything is stopping us from achieving your goal

(Quiroz looks at him in a sympathetic way)

Quiroz- You're right, I've been foolish, I can only apologize to mankind-

(Foster walks in on Quiroz and Dreg, Foster slowly walks up to them both)

Foster- You are in my seat human, please reposition yourself out of my area!

Quiroz- Oh, just leave me alone, we're sorry, have the planet

Dreg- Other one?

Quiroz- He means Jared! He's not currently on this planet (Smiles proud of his lie)

Foster- Very noble of one to defend their predecessor, loyalty does nothing to those who lie to themselves (He grabs Quiroz gently by the neck and lifts him up off the ground and Dreg punches Foster to make him release Quiroz) Now Quiroz, where is he? (He doesn't let go despite the punches and Quiroz quivers in panic and looks into Foster's black robotic eyes that blink by closing using circular shutters)

CUT TO:

(Shows Sinister lighting the candles for a night in on her own on the couch in which she will partake in reading a book called 'apocalypse'. She settles in and before she knows it hears a noise slowly getting closer, they are footsteps of a giant seeming figure and she sees the shadow of this figure blackening the sheet covering her window hole, slowly a hand curls around the sheet and begins to slowly move the sheet over from right to left. Sinister panics and backs away towards the candle she has just lit)

Sinister- hello... I've got fire! (The pulling back of the sheet reveals Vorn (Cooker) looking completely different from the last time Sinister saw him) Oh my word, what are you? (Vorn roars and blows the candle nearly out)

Vorn- Crush... Smash (He approaches her slowly before picking her up and having her against the wall and looking into her eyes, and at this point Sinister recognises that he looks familiar but is in too much of a panic to fully tell who he is, instead she knocks the candle onto his foot and it burns Vorn and he screams from the burn and it begins to run up his leg and attacks the metal he is built with)

Sinister- Sorry... (She runs away and Vorn runs behind her on fire trying to catch her as she runs outside and trips on a piece of wood and Vorn stands over her still on fire but is used to the pain and the flame never burns out due to the high amount of oxygen in the atmosphere. Vorn goes to punch her and kill her but the vehicle that Cash and Drianna are in run over Vorn and knock him away, Vorn gets up and chases back after the vehicle)

Cash- Sinister get in!

Drianna- Come on Sinister, quick! (Vorn roars gorilla like as he approaches, a huge ball of fire coming closer and closer as Sinister gets in and they manage sot just about escape into the sky, Vorn does jump but just misses and they get away and Vorn roars again and runs after the vehicle despite it now being miles and miles away he is determined to get revenge for the fire Sinister caused)

(Drianna, Sinister, Cash and Steve the father are all in the vehicle)

Drianna- What the hell on Curiumite was that?

Sinister- I don't know, but I presume it came with the robots, he was quite metallic before I through fire on him

Cash- That'll never come off now will it, unless he's hit with water or something

Sinister- that's what I thought, there's o oxygen so surely he'll die it just made him angry

Cash- Maybe he'll keep chasing you until he gets revenge

Drianna- Don't say that!

Sinister- yeah Cash

Steve- Adaboy son

Sinister- hey Mr Tucker

Steve- Sinister, pleasure haven't seen you since you were a little toddler

Sinister- Yeah I haven't seen you since you had dark hair ha-ha

Steve- Aye it's quite grey these days

Sinister- Do you know what was weird I could of sworn I recognised him!

Drianna- Who?

Sinister- That thing... on fire

Drianna- Really?!

Cash- Oh come on, that's ridiculous

Sinister- Cash it's as likely as, in fact more likely than those ghoull things coming to invade us again so shut up

Cash- hey I ain't ruling anything out, I didn't expect robots to attack us again I have to admit

Sinister- Anyway suppose I should thank you anyway, where are we going now?

Drianna- Presumably Jared for you Cash?

Cash- Yeah, don't think we can fit much more in here though

Steve- We can't it's against the law

Drianna- Alright granddad don't know what generation you're stuck in, but law certainly doesn't apply today, were two hundred feet in the air when the limitation is 2 feet normally

Steve- I was just suggesting...

Cash- it's alright dad, we don't mind,, heck if you wanna jump out that'll be great ha-ha

Steve- Oh very funny, sometimes I doubt you kids

Drianna- Don't doubt us dad, we've been in much worse, cash has been in prison

Cash- Hey don't bring that up again

Drianna- Sorry (Smiles at Sinister)

Cash- How's the cut?

Sinister- Oh yeah was gonna ask where you got that from?!

Drianna- Oh its fine, it's nothing, just some weird robot thing

Cash- Hey Sinister, you couldn't get your boyfriend alien over here to help could you?

Sinister- Xykol's probably busy being leader of Stellioplaneta

Cash- Oh is that what he tells you (Smiles at his dad and winks)

CUT TO:

(At Jared's large house he sits down with a glass of what he had in the previous scene he was in and settles down in bed listening to classical music on his recorder from earth that has been brought to Curiumite especially for his services as he still is regarded as the man who helped the humans through the toughest time in History, the grey hair demonstrates this experience he has gone through. He sits there for a while until suddenly the door is opened by an explosion; Foster walks in with his Bert's and Gert robots. Foster approaches a panicking Foster, and Quiroz also is pulled in behind him by the Fosterbütons)

Jared- Please, whatever you want, just take it

Foster- That's very coincidental, it is you we want, we need you, we need this planet

Quiroz- Come on you soulless beings, you have a planet now, let us have peace

Foster- But our father, he was a human and he knew you Master Jared very well, tell us about him

Jared- I'll tell you nothing, you don't have any emotional attachment to that man, you don't feel emotions (he shouts)

Foster- I sense a raise in your voice, are you nervous, or are you trying to diffuse anger onto us, because if we get angry we will kill you all

Jared- Why should we tread carefully with you?!

Quiroz- Yeah, you're gonna kill us anyway, isn't that the rule, you kill any human being without fail or something?!

Jared- Yeah Klaus told me everything, he never kept his mouth shut your 'father', that's something about him

Foster- Oh silly humans, if you listened to our father you'd realise master Jared that we only kill fugitives, are you a fugitive master Jared

Jared- No

Foster- master Quiroz?

Quiroz- No, not at all

Foster- But as you've led me onto this wonderful scenario, your friend, a certain Dreg (Dreg is dragged in by Fosterbütons)

Dreg- Please, let me go, let us all go free

Foster- He's a fugitive isn't he, turned good, worked his...

Quiroz- way up to the top yes, unhand him

(Foster uses his 'Lypoer' a strong gun that fires green rays through the object and doesn't cause any blood to be spilt, but just knocks them dead and frozen)

Quiroz- No... he was good, he was going to be the next- the next leader!

Foster- But how can you turn pure when you have been nothing but sinister or evil, I'm sorry if I caused harm to you but it is the rules

Quiroz- He wasn't sinister or evil, don't say that!

Foster- Now Jared, please tell me, what did Klaus tell you about us, we need to know more about our development, our evolution, we need to know how many planets we will need for this evolution of ours

(Jared laughs)

Jared- Evolution... you must be joking, there is no evolution, you aren't real, you are artificial intelligence, we created you, don't pretend you're important, you're not, we played god and now were getting burnt, we accept that, but you are nothing

Foster- Silly old man... (He aims the Lypoer at Jared and Quiroz is lined up next to him)

Jared- Shoot me, I'm old anyway, shoot me twice so you don't have to shoot Quiroz

Foster- If only we artificially moronic, perhaps your technique would've worked (He lines up the trigger but he then hears the Fosterbütons get shot by the Frier that cash has and Sinister is with him, and it drowns the Fosterbütons)

Foster- Cash! An old friend, I will talk to you in approximately five seconds just let me finish my work

Cash- Leave the men alone Foster

Foster- You've travelled far I suppose, you deserve a proper hello (He goes for a handshake and Cash accepts)

Cash- Why you doing this, why are you causing mayhem for us again?

Foster- Oh Cash, sir, I don't mean to cause it for you, it is for your race, they have a planet we all desire, you must understand that

Cash- I don't I'm sorry, leave Jared and Quiroz please, let them live

Foster- Cash, I won't let them go, and I won't, I can't fight you

Cash- I'm sorry Foster

Foster- Whatever for?

Cash- this! (Sinister pulls out her own Lypoer that she had gotten off a dead robot and shoots at Foster and knocks him away into the corner of the room and the four of the humans run out, Cash is shooting Fosterbütons and Zostergurons as they leave the building and enter the car that Drianna and Steve are waiting in patiently with weapons of some sort in hands. Foster wakes up and looks out the window to see a Fosterbüton about to shoot, Foster shouts out the window)

Foster- Bert, what are you doing?

Bert- Shooting the driver sir!

Foster- (Checks who's driving, and sees Drianna) Drianna (Foster quickly pulls out his Lypoer and shoots Bert dead before he can shoot Drianna. Foster then looks around the room he is in looking at pictures of Jared in different times in his life and smashes them)

CUT TO:

(Shows Cash, Drianna, Sinister, Steve, Jared and Quiroz cramped into one car, Jared has his own seat, as does Steve due to their age. Drianna is still driving)

Jared- So what the hell is the plan now?

Steve- Please, don't be so cynical Jared

Jared- Sorry, just got a bad case of Déjà vu here, I'm fed up of robots and aliens, I just wanna leave this ridiculous build-up of events behind

Cash- yeah well listen Jared we all want that, all of us, but we can't just pick and choose when, that's just being ignorant, we need to stop the problem ourselves, and by the way Quiroz, yeah I still think aliens will invade again

(Quiroz looks disheartened)

Jared- I'm just too old for this again

Cash- I doubt anyone will be forcing you to fight them, all you need to do is keep the energy levels up to get away

Jared- I fear I can't, I fear that you can't fight the plate gods given you, I know that it's not far away

Drianna- Listen Jared, don't get pessimistic, Dad's not, he's fit as ever, keep positive, you'll be ok

Cash- So anyway, Jared, don't worry about anything, we'll make sure you're ok, dad, you don't do anything either, you are too old to fight for us

Steve- I beg your pardon, am I being flogged off like a nan in a retirement home am I?

Cash- Ha-ha no, you're just not a good fighter, hence you where the hairdresser for the soldiers in the last war

Steve- Touché, but they did look fabulous didn't they?!

Drianna- Oh yeah dad

Jared- Master blooming barber over here

Cash- Listen we all need to know our roles if we are all going to survive this, and after we survive, well I'm not too sure what we do... we'll have to presume were going to win the war

Sinister- So we gonna fight these son of guns or what?

Cash- That's the plan

Jared- How though?

Cash- I don't know I'll figure something out...

(Quiroz grabs Cash's hand and looks at him)

Quiroz- I know...

Cash- Know what?

Quiroz- I know the aliens are coming, I believe you, you were right, I was obnoxious and I've lacked discipline as a leader, I'm sorry

Cash- Listen Quiroz, its fine all you need to do now is tell us a way out of this mess

Quiroz- There is one thing we can do?

Sinister- tell him what is it?

Quiroz- Go back!

Jared- What do you mean go back?

Quiroz- Go back to Earth, go back home, our forbidden planet... our forbidden planet
(Smiles)

(Pause)

Jared- Are you insane?!

Drianna- No hang on...

Cash- Yeah hang on, I agree... They've used our own express haven't they to get here, but built more, all it takes is one of them, they're all here, every robot, all we need to do is find a way of leaving this planet for dead with them on it, destroy them for good!

Quiroz- I'll have to confirm it to the rest of the planet, my Dreg isn't here anymore god bless his soul to help me with such a massive task-

Cash- Listen you don't do that, you, Jared and dad all split with us to try and find a suitable express that is fully functional and has other ones close by, were gonna need a few

Steve- How many son?

Cash- say 5 or 6

Drianna- And Cash what are us two doing? (meaning Sinister and herself)

Cash- Well I'm not gonna let my sister go alone am I, big bros coming along, where gonna tell the people the news, the plan, and kill some robots whilst where at it

Drianna- Cool

Sinister- hag on a minute, how are we supposed to destroy the robots and the supposed aliens when we leave

Cash- Tut, I forgot you love the stupid Ghouls, we're planning on escaping before they attack us, so that's the rush, you see

Sinister- But I still don't think they're attacking us

Cash- Listen we can argue all day lets act as if it's going to happen then, its happened once before hasn't it?!

Sinister- Whatever, so how then, answer me?

Steve- Erm cash if I may...back in my day we discovered something called the large hadron collider, apparently something about that can create black holes

Jared- That's a stupid suggestion it will never work, it will kill us all

Cash- get one built...

Quiroz- We have one on this planet, it was one of the first things we did here

Cash- Brilliant, where is it?

Quiroz- About 200 miles south (points)

Cash- Vague, will it definitely create a black hole

Quiroz- I can't guarantee I ain't no scientist, but you won't miss it, it's pretty big, a massive dome

Cash- Ok, so there's a chance, we all know are positions people (They say yes) ok were gonna get out the vehicle and head towards that machine, you are gonna drive to find an express, we all know our jobs (Yes they say) let's do it!

CUT TO:

(In an Express containing many key ghouls and types of ghouls and Yabbies)

XyY- So we get down there, when we land we go all out, no mercy, those humans killed our ghoul and we need to teach these humans a lesson on respect

Ghoul- Do we kill anything on the planet?

XyY- We destroy everything, we show no regret, no reluctance and no fragility, we don't want these unintelligent beings giving us a lesson in war

Xylozone- Excuse me!

XyY- Yes sir?

Xylozone- Can you keep it down, trying to contemplate, thanks

XyY- Sorry sir

Xylozone- Sorry? Don't say that word, don't show reluctance, regret, fragility

(Ghouls laugh in the background)

XyY- I was just telling them sir...

Xylozone- Well don't be hypocritical... I don't know what you are laughing at, this is war ghouls, be more like the Yabbies, the attitude on this express isn't up to standard, do you want the Yabbies to lead us to war- Didn't think so, sort it out (Xylozone leaves XyY red faced)

CUT TO:

(Somewhere else in the express, Xykol is sitting in a room with lots of ghouls who possess a different eye colour and nose shape (Lings) and he talks to his fellow Garth followers at the front of the room segregated from the Lings)

Bquel- (A ling believer and very skinny prisoner made to fight in the express) Let us free!

Xykol- Oh here we go again

XyY- Want me to shoot one in the leg?

Xykol- No that won't be necessary, them being chained up and made to fight is about enough isn't it really

XyY- If you think so sir...

Xykol- Where's your backbone, do it, do what you believe is right

XyY- If you're sure sir (Smiles)

Bquel- My family, my wife, she'll never live without me, let me go home, let us all go home (XyY shoots him in the leg and Bquel is in pain) you don't understand the pain

XyY- Oh shut up, Xykol tell him!

Xykol- Sit down XyY please

Bqot- You can't do that to him, all we want is peace

Xykol- Peace, ha-ha, peace is something that exists amongst intelligent kinds, not Lings (looks bizarrely at them)

Bqot- You need to let us go please, you have the Yabbies why can't they be enough?

Bquel- Please get me some help, medical help

Xykol- Go fetch some help

XyY- yes sir

Xykol- (Xykol takes his hat off and fidgets a bit with his hair) Many ghouls, many garths have lost family members, many garths are fighting for their planet, for their dignity, I struggle to remember many Lings being present when the last great war happened, do you?

Bqot- We just want to live our own lives

Xykol- We all have families back at home, what gives you (waits for name)

Bqot- Bqot

Xykol- Unusual, what gives you the right to live in harmony on Stellioplaneta whilst we fight on Curiumite?

Bqot- We never started a war

Xykol- Oh but heritage would suggest otherwise, we all know of the past of the Lings, they're not coveted in a glorious past of tradition and doing no wrong are they?! In fact I struggle to think how much you actually know of your own religion

(Pause)

Xykol- Now shut up and fight!

CUT TO:

Xylozone- (is awoken by a Yabby shaking him) What? Oh what's the matter?

Yabby- Where nearly there, look! (He looks out the window at vast land of nothing other than bizarre animals called Zebfish running around)

Xylozone- What erm... what are they?

Yabby- We don't know, we guess they're the natives

Xylozone- Where (laughs ironically) where are the humans though?

Yabby- we are looking for colonies of them but yet to find any

Xylozone- Well let's keep looking, and warn the ghouls of these natives please, they could be dangerous

Yabby- Ok, can I make a suggestion in the words of Fred?

Xylozone- Ha, go on

Yabby- Can we maybe go easier on the Lings, we'd rather not see how you treat them?

Xylozone- What do you mean?

Yabby- (looks confused) you are almost torturing them in front of us, well Xykol is further down the express

Xylozone- is he now?! What do you want me to do about it, we need to build a good army, we can't do it without some good old character building ey!

Yabby- Ok, we'll tell you when we land ok sir?

Xylozone- yeah that's fine, now go (He looks angry and confused)

CUT TO:

(Foster walks over a hill towards his fellow colony of robots, a Fosterbütons approaches)

Bert- Master, what should we proceed in our exploits of this planets (He points up at the express flying above with the ghouls in)

Foster- Well that depends on what is in the vehicles, do you know?

Bert- I think it's ghouls

Gert- It is ghouls!

Foster- Well in that case, any doubt shoot it down!

Bert- Yes master, (He then shouts to the other Zostergurons and Fosterbütons) Shoot it down

(They all begin to shoot the express but it makes little impact)

Xykol- (Watching over a Ling who has disrespected him) If you try to pull that type of stunt again I will have you and your family executed you understand (A slight rumble from the robots weapons knocks Xykol to the ground) What?

Yabby- Xylozone, sir!

Xylozone- What now, just let me relax damn it

Yabby- we are under attack

Xylozone- Is it the humans?

Yabby- Its much worse, the metal movers

Xylozone- What? (He looks out the window and sees the robots shooting at them) Oh how good of them to show up! Get all ghouls awake and firing we are gonna land this thing now!

Xykol- You can't do that (panting from running up the express)

Xylozone- Listen I would keep my mouth shut if I was you Xykol, you have caused enough anger for today

Xykol- What do you mean?

Yabby- Come on wise guy get out!

Xykol- You can't do this, you don't own me!

Xylozone- Fred

Fred- Yes sir (Appears from the cockpit) It's not good, I give us three minutes before we get blown down

Xylozone- We're going down anyway, but on our own accord, NOW!

(Foster watches on as a Fosterbüton approaches)

Bert- It doesn't seem to work sir!

Foster- use the Posterlüttons, let's get this war started in mid-flight shall we!

Bert- Fire the Posterlüttons now (They oblige and the parasitic robots land in the express and begin to grow quickly as the Yabbies try to kill them before they can develop)

Yabby- What are these things man!

Yabby- Got me, just kill them and ask questions later

Yabby- There's too many

Fred- Just try lads, keep it up

Yabby- But they are growing (They grow to the size of a Fosterbüton)

Fred- Right get the hell out of here, come on let's go, come on!

(Fred quickly closes the door and runs with his fellow Yabbies)

Yabby- Are you sure that's safe?

Xylozone- Don't worry, they can't open doors, I think

(The now Duobüton blows the door open and chases them with three other now developed Duobüton)

Fred- Ok, so they don't need to we've established

Yabby- I'm getting out of here

Xylozone- Keep shooting them (Xylozone runs well away from the danger with Fred as ghouls and XyY take over to help the Yabbies shoot the robots)

Fred- Don't worry about the landing Xylozone, we are gonna hit water (He smiles)

Xylozone- That's terrible!

Fred- Why?

Xylozone- We can't live with water, too much hydrogen

Fred- This plan seems to have backfired slightly sir

Xylozone- Yes I can see that thanks Fred, and where's Xykol?

(Slowly the ghouls and Yabbies manage to kill the robots and quickly try to control the express to land on land rather than water)

Yabby- I'll try my best beings

Ghoul- Come on

Yabby- Hey he's doing it isn't he?

XyY- Don't speak to my man like that

Yabby- Hey buddy were on the same side here

(The Yabby manages to control the flight of the express to just about avoid the water with Xylozone and Fred panicking and not knowing what is going on, it makes a loud noise when it lands which dazzles Cash who can hear it in the distance with Sinister and Drianna)

Cash- What was that?

Sinister- I don't know, probably the robots blowing up our civilization, it's best not to think about it

Drianna- Or maybe a new threat

Sinister- Shut up (panicking)

Cash- Let's keep moving

Drianna- Don't you wanna check it out?

Cash- No, if it is a threat then why would we move towards it?!

Drianna- it's inevitable that we are gonna hit hurdles on the way to this hadron collider

Sinister- Well in that case I think we should speed up

CUT TO:

(After the crash of the express, slowly the ghouls begin to walk out and diffuse across the express taking in the atmosphere and looking on at them from a safe distance is the robots, who stare intently at them and don't say a word, that is until the entrance of Xylozone and Fred who are some of the last of the almost 50,000 ghouls to have exited the giant vehicle)

Foster- Is this all you brought to fight us at war?

Xylozone- Ah, pleasure to meet the leader of the robots and what is your name?

Foster- Foster, but I'm sure somewhere in that unconscious you knew that

Xylozone- Well would you look at that. No more ghouls will follow, this is an introduction into the army we have

Foster- You have risen well, a noble leader, I presume!

Xylozone- You'll find out

Foster- And what of these bizarre creatures beside you?

Xylozone- These are our allies, the Yabbies, from the planet of Ramachan

Foster- And you are here, disrupting our plans for what cause?

Fred- Not a good reason-

Xylozone- Shut up, for the reason of vengeance, to destroy the human race that brought my father to his death, if you can recall

Foster- I'd have to be a different machine not to recall the event, so you are here with good reason, you want the humans dead, and we want this planet, could we maybe come to an agreement?

Xylozone- (Whispers to Fred) Tell your Yabbies to try and find Xykol, I don't know where he is (Shouts to Foster) is it we fight and you reap rewards?

Foster- Not as bluntly put as that but yes; you are on the right lines

Xylozone- we may be on a mission but we are not desperate

Foster- I don't want to argue with you Xylozone, I'm sure I will end up having you killed judging by the characteristics of your fighters (points at the Lings)

Xylozone- The lings are talented when called upon

Foster- Well then, if we can't agree, then I suppose we do as we did before and fight

Xylozone- Yeah suppose that is what we do after all

Foster- I refuse to fight you though Xylozone

Xylozone- Why?

Foster- I made a promise, a promise all them years ago that I couldn't lay a finger on you and I would protect you, we artificial ones love our principles

Xylozone- So were not fighting then?

Foster- Oh no, we are still fighting, I'm sure one of my soldiers at war can finish you off, please let's start (The robots charge forwards, mostly Zostergurons and Fosterbüttons to attack the ghouls and XyY)

(Whilst the war kicks off and many of the subjects in the war are being either terminated or killed through different types of colourful weaponry, Xylozone sneaks off following the large crowd of Yabbies who are following Fred and Foster watches them walk away)

Bert- What are you doing, you are letting them go master?

Foster- No, I'm letting them explore their graves, they are the ones chasing a lost cause, Xykol won't be where their looking

Bert- Where is he?

Foster- Pursuing his love... let's go (He walks away from the battle that is taking place and in the distance more expresses are arriving, around 5 in the far distance)

CUT TO: FOREST

(Cash and co. are walking through a red forest full of large trees, much larger than the average earth tree and with many Zebfish acting in their natural habitat and looking at Cash, Drianna and Sinister like they are intruding)

Cash- What in the name are these things?

Sinister- I don't know but maybe if were quiet they might not try and intimidate us

Cash- Oh yeah that's how it works (Sarcastic)

Drianna- I've heard rumours that they will attack us if we stare at them

Cash- Why would they attack you for that?

Sinister- I believe it, why wouldn't they, we intruded on their planet, why wouldn't they kill us?!

Cash- Because I'm sure they have morals

Drianna- There animals Cash

Sinister- Yeah their not humans

Cash- Neither are ghouls...

Sinister- I'm sure they would've tried to communicate with us If they had interest in speaking to us

Cash- Oh I'm sorry, who invaded their planet, surely you can forgive them for being a little on the apprehensive side

Drianna- Let's just get out of here before the Zebfish attack us ey

Cash- Psst (The Zebfish looks around from eating the cactus)

Sinister- what are you doing? (Pure anger)

Cash- Oh give it a rest, oi, Zebfish!

(Zebfish turns around and walks towards them on four legs and then stands up over them)

Cash- They are a lot larger than I thought

Drianna- Its late to notice that isn't it?!

Zebfish- It's late to notice that isn't it?! (Struggling to speak fluently)

Cash- I'm sorry, seriously, we'll just carry on with our journey sorry

Zebfish- I'm sorry, seriously

Cash- No, its fine, just let us get back to our quest thank you

Zebfish- back to quest, thank you!

Drianna- Wow, you're very nice

Zebfish- Nice, you're nice, wow

(The humans present all look at each other in confusion)

Sinister- How do we get to the hadron collider?

Cash- Sinister, why ask that? It's there; you can see it (He points at it through the large trees)

Sinister- Oh yeah, we there already ha-ha

Zebfish- ha-ha, already

Cash- I suggest we go now guys, come on

Drianna- Agreed

Zebfish- I suggest we go now guys, agreed

(Cash smiles)

Cash- He's like a parrot

Drianna- What?

Cash- He repeats everything you say, he's like a parrot

Zebfish- Parrot

Sinister- Oh my word, oh you are just adorable

(The Zebfish steps back into the depths of the forest and shouts with a large roaring squeal like a seagull and it echoes and the ground begins to shake)

Cash- Ok don't know what's going on now

Sinister- Why's the floor shaking?

Cash- I don't know

Drianna- Let's just go

Cash- agreed hadron collider?

Drianna- Just run (They run through the forest and rip their clothes trying to get past the branches and spikes of the cactuses)

(There's a large plain around 300 meters away is the hadron collider in the distance, the ground is still shaking and they run more in the burning heat from the star that powers the planet)

Sinister- I have to stop, too tired, it's so hot (breathing heavily)

Cash- Come on, were nearly there

Sinister- Doesn't look close

Drianna- Guys that thing is here again (looking scarred)

Cash- (Turning around) What the Zebfish oh-

Sinister- What's the matter?

Drianna- Your boyfriends here!

Sinister- Xykol- (Turns around excited)

(Vorn stands around 100 metres away looking fierce and angry)

Sinister- No, have you got a gun Cash?

Cash- Yeah, but he's got that! (Shows his weapon, looks like an acidic hammer and he walks towards them slowly picking up the pace pulling the hammer along the floor as it burns through the ground)

Cash- I think we should run

Drianna- Where?

Sinister Anywhere!

(They run towards the hadron collider and Vorn slowly begins to catch up, as he is about to get them the Zebfish appear in their numbers, there is around 15 of them and they attack Vorn, The three humans manage to make their way to the hadron collider and turn back to witness the battle taking place)

Sinister- we gonna do it then?

Drianna- We can't just do it, we need Jared and Quiroz to tell the humans and get them off the planet

Sinister- The Zebfish, the poor Zebfish

(Vorn manages to get himself away from the following Zebfish who chase him as Vorn again gets closer to the humans)

Cash- Get away from here come on!

Sinister- Where?

Cash- Just follow! (They run around the building to see more Zebfish coming over the horizon)

Sinister- I'm scared Cash

Cash- Don't worry, we'll be fine, trust me (He smiles at her and she smiles back)

Drianna- Ok, but they are getting closer

Sinister- And so is he (Vorn comes round the corner roaring at the Zebfish coming towards him)

(Vorn waits for the Zebfish to get closer and then he takes his mask off and gets more angry than before and charges at them and swiping them away with his hammer, again Cash, Drianna and Sinister sneak away but are stopped by a ghoul who finds them)

Drianna- Oh my word they are attacking us again!

Ghoul- Hello (Smiles)

Ghoul#2- What catch you got here?

Ghoul- Its humans, they look experienced

Ghoul#2- We shall end their lives!

(Cash pulls his gun out and shoots them)

Cash- No you won't

(Ghoul gets up and looks at ghoul#2 and gets angry at his death)

Ghoul- You killed my friend!

Cash- Don't play with fire

Ghoul- That's what I was thinking

(The humans look behind them and Vorn is behind them having scared the Zebfish away)

Cash- Listen, we don't want any trouble with you

(Vorn sniffs all three humans and then picks up Sinister)

Sinister- Put me down

Cash- Put her down (He shoot her with the same gun, the Galle bullets hardly work on him as he is unfazed)

Sinister- I know who are Cooker, please put me down, why me?

(Vorn looks into her eyes and roars at her and goes to attack her before being disturbed by Xykol)

Xykol- Put her down Vorn!

Vorn- (He looks at Xykol and looks annoyed and throws Sinister on the floor)

Sinister- What?

Ghoul- Huh, Xykol, how did you?

(Xykol shoots the ghoul down with a Galle gun)

Xykol- Vorn, step away please!

Cash- What's going on, I thought he was a robot's creation?

Xykol- Please Cash, for once, just shut up, you annoy me so much, your voice is like thorn rammed in my throat

Cash- Excuse me?

Xykol- Sinister, need a hand? (He offers to help her up)

Sinister- No I can help myself up thank you! What the hell is going on?

Drianna- tell you what's going on, cash was right and no one believed him, Sinister these ghouls, they're not peaceful beings, they just want us dead, they have some sick obsession over us

Xykol- I agree, they're bad news

Drianna- What?

Xykol- I want that race to rot, unfortunately you humans always manage to get in the way, Vorn take control of the girl, do not kill her! Bring her with me!

(Vorn walks to Sinister and picks her up gently and Sinister panics and Vorn walks slowly off as Cash tracks behind)

Cash- No get off her, you can't take her (Vorn whacks Cash away really hurting his face and he is a lot of pain)

Drianna- Cash you alright?

Cash- No, where are they taking her, what does he want with her? (Bleeding from the cut)

Drianna- Come here (Hugs him as he cries and dabs a tissue on his cut) we'll get her back, don't worry

CUT TO:

(Shows Quiroz, Jared and Steve stopping in a street warning the humans of an attack on them)

Human- What do you mean an attack?

Jared- The humans are under attack by robots!

Human- Aliens as well, is it another great war?

Jared- No, aliens aren't attacking as far as we know

Human- Knowing you Jared there probably are

Quiroz- Hey you leave him alone, he's a great leader

Human- And who's this guy?

Steve- Steve, just a geg along really ha-ha

Human- right

Quiroz- So have this gun, anything attacks shoot it, doesn't matter what it is, just kill it, keep you and your family safe, and tell them the news ok?

Human- Ok, wouldn't surprise me if the aliens did attack guys

Jared- Why?

Human- Oh you know why, you shot their leader, I mean how stupid do you wanna be?!

Steve- Listen I'd peak to him a lot better than that if you wanna keep your gun, we don't want blood shed now do we?!

Human- (Staring) No

Steve- Then shut up and go away, get ready! (The human leaves who remains unnamed)

Jared- Thanks Steve

Steve- Its ok, I'm just getting stressed over my kids, I hope they're doing ok

Jared- Don't worry, they're tenacious I tell you

Quiroz- Shall we crack on, a few more people to tell and then it's all clear to start the hadron collider

Jared- Let's do it, although I wish I could have a rest

Quiroz- Why?

Jared- Well me and Steve aren't as fit and healthy as you

Quiroz- We can rest on Earth, for now, we have a war to crack on with (Smiles)

Steve- Ok, let's get back in the vehicle (They get in and begin to take off into the sky slightly at a quick speed and with super vision binoculars Xylozone watches them go with his many ghouls and Yabbies around 4 miles away)

Fred- Can you see them?

Xylozone- Of course, Jared looked proud as ever, he won't look so cliché when I kill him in front of all his followers. Any news on Xykol?

Fred- My Yabbies are still looking for him, no sign, and the Lings are fighting their cause well

Xylozone- Good... (He turns to the many beings behind him and shouts) Soon vengeance will be felt, don't worry the war will be over soon, we just have to keep on top of our fellow living organisms and the Xyouless

CUT TO:

(Shows Xykol, Vorn and Sinister tied up and with tape across her mouth to stop her from talking and she is attached to Vorn, they walk for a while across a hot desert in which it leads to a large hut made out of Curiumite, they slowly make their way into the hut and Vorn begins to place Sinister in a large cage and Xykol takes off his soldiers uniform to reveal a metal maroon suit that only he is seen wearing in the film, Vorn rips off Sinister's tape from her mouth which hurts and startles her at first and then she begins to shout)

Sinister- Get me out, get me out! Where am I?

Xykol- Shhh...

Sinister- You shush, do you realise how confused and scared I am?!

Xykol- Vorn, you may leave!

Sinister- Cooker you stay here!

Vorn- (Roars at Sinister and leaves)

Xykol- You still think he's Cooker, no... he's not anymore I'm sorry

Sinister- What did those things do to him? (Getting emotional)

Xykol- They made him better, stronger, useful

Sinister- He was a friend, ok a bossy one, but he was friend and they've ruined him

Xykol- They've made him

Sinister- And you, what's your story?

Xykol- Don't give me this criticism please, I don't deserve it!

Sinister- Tell me so I can make an informed decision on the matter, cause at the moment I feel like I've been a complete fool

Xykol- You're not a fool! Don't ever say that, you're perfect

Sinister- Please stop lying to me (Angry)

Xykol- I love you, you know that!

Sinister- tell me straight, what is going on, and why if you love me?

Xykol- Some patience, you'll know soon

Sinister- I thought there was no strings attached, I thought you were the one, I know that sounds ridiculous, but I really liked you, I didn't care what you were!

Xykol- I'm still that ghoul, trust me

Sinister- Cash was right, you're nothing

Xykol- Don't listen to him, he has no idea, who is he anyway, some survivor, who thinks he's a war veteran, don't listen to that loser

Sinister- Tell me what you want with me, why am I in this cage, what do you want with me? (Angry and frustrated)

Xykol- (looks out of the window of the hut for a while contemplating) Ok, you wanna know everything?

Sinister- Yes, I even wanna know why my romantic visit to Stellioplaneta happened?

Xykol- Warm isn't on this planet for you humans

Sinister- Don't change the subject!

Xykol- Ok, I'm not- I'm not a strict believer in the whole ghoul society

Sinister- You may as well speak Ghonguage to me, I don't know what you are on about

Xykol- I want the Ghouls destroyed just as much as you humans would like them to leave you all alone, that's the truth, I hate the ghouls, them all can rot as far as I'm concerned, do you know what it's like to have a brother who places you in the abyss, a brother who is ashamed to call himself your brother, a brother who places you Quexlopellopex-Lopelx-Trex-Lopexus-Complex in the hierarchy of our planet, I'm below... BELOW a female in the hierarchy, some Xychelle female is above ME! You have to forgive me, I get emotional when I talk about my brother, my member of the family, let's just say he isn't family anymore, you know why?!

Sinister- You're scaring me Xykol

Xykol- Because I killed Xyrex, my brother!

Sinister- No you couldn't have, Jared killed him-

Xykol- There's a reason Jared brought his death, there's a reason Xylozone came with me that day

Sinister- Why?

Xykol- I gave Jared a choice as leader of the humans, he kills Xyrex, or Xylozone, he chose youth over experience, it was a choice he had to make, otherwise life as you humans know it would be already over

Sinister- I don't believe you, Jared would've mentioned something, definitely

Xykol- Why would he, him and Xyrex knew what they were doing, they were saving the boy's life, Xyrex chose this

Sinister- Why has Jared not told any of us?

Xykol- We know where he lives, we know what buttons to press, if he so much said a word to anyone, we'd destroy the human race with immediate effect

Sinister- Who's we? Tell me Xykol

Xykol- The robots, the Xyouless, whatever anyone calls us

Sinister- What? No you're not a robot, you're a ghoul, an alien!

Xykol- I am, but I am also the leader of the robots rebel against the creators, I'm the one who signals attacks, tells Foster how to lead, I'm the one who planned the now destruction of humans, and the embarrassing defeat of the ghouls, I betrayed my own kind, my own brother, once you stare such power in the face, you just want more, I got more, I am the leader of the hillophers, the destroyers of Xyrant

Sinister- You let me out of here now and you never talk to me again Xykol, ok?

Xykol- Of course it's not ok, I'm telling you this in confidence I need to know you're on my side

Sinister- You have killed, you have destroyed so many lives, you have betrayed, and you expect me to welcome you with open arms as if this philosophy of yours is the correct way of thinking, you lied to me!

Xykol- I kept you from the harsh reality, if that's a crime then I don't know what I should do

Sinister- When I thought you were dead, I thought the robots had killed you, you, said 'trust me', was that a lie?

Xykol- Of course it was, they wouldn't kill me, I'm the one who gave them freedom, they respect me, I'm their leader. I'm asking you a simple question now Sinister, I love you and you love me-

Sinister- Doubt it after this

Xykol- Will you join me, will you be my lover, will you stand with me and watch two races burn to the ground as we take control of more land more planets?

Sinister- Ha-ha, you are a creep, I would rather die than be part of your charade

Xykol- You don't mean that!

Sinister- Oh I do, trust me on that one

Xykol- I love you Sinister, imagine the planets being conquered by one human and one ghou1, against all odds, I'm doing this now for you

Sinister- Ha-ha, I don't like you anymore, I never loved you, I know who I love, an you are nowhere near this being

Xykol- (Clicks his fingers and Vorn comes in again) Well then the truth comes out, good old Cash is it, is that your sweet lover

Sinister- Why would I tell you (Vorn roars)

Xykol- Must I kill him to have you?

Sinister- You can't kill him, he'll find a way

Xykol- Your right he is a worm like that isn't he, I'll give you time to reconsider your decision, Vorn keep an eye on the measly human

Sinister- Better not leave me here, Xykol... XYKOL!

(Xykol walks out and Vorn sits down in front of Sinister and watches her intently)

CUT TO:

(Drianna and Cash are walking at a quick pace and Drianna is slowly lagging behind in the hot stretch of sand and jungle next to them)

Drianna- Cash, come on just wait, slow up a bit!

Cash- No, Drianna they could be doing anything to her right now, we need to be quick

Drianna- Cash, listen to me... you can't walk all the way to where she is, for two reasons yeah, one you'll collapse form the heat, the other you don't have a clue where she is, it useless, just stay a bit more composed

Cash- I love her though

Drianna- yeah so do I, but listen you can't just run there like a headless chicken, you got to take time over it, you gotta think

Cash- But...

Drianna- No buts, let's just walk a bit slower and let the sweat dry off

Cash- That's disgusting Drianna, come on sis

Drianna- What can girls not be crude too, sexist?

Cash- Nooo... just it's a bit inappropriate

Drianna- I really miss chicken, you onto how it used to taste good with anything

Cash- Nothing wrong with the artificial stuff is there?

Drianna- ha-ha, yes there is, it's disgusting, in fact it's worse than dry sweat

Cash- (Smiles with the worry of Sinister in the back of his mind) Come on we gonna carry on then

Drianna- Right, I'm taking over now, let's get some perspective on this, we don't know where she is, we don't know where the robots are, they could pop out from anywhere and kill us, and now we've got those bloody ghouls as well, so we have to be careful, let's take baby steps yeah?!

Cash- (reluctantly) ok, I've lost Sinister suppose the last thing I wanna do is lose you (He turns around from Drianna to find a large Zebfish in his path) Oh no, what do we do, what do we do?

Drianna- I don't know

Cash- Hello

Zebfish- hello

Cash- You move out of our way?

Zebfish- Move out of way!

Drianna- You fight for us humans?

Zebfish- Fight for humans (Nods its head)

Cash- Male or female?

Drianna- He's not going to know what that means is he?

Zebfish- female (The Zebfish looks to bow down to the two of them)

Drianna- Looks like he's bowing to you Cash

Cash- He's looking at you to be honest

Drianna- Erm... there's more! (More Zebfish come out of the jungle of cactuses and also bow to them, around 15 of them) What's going on?

Cash- I don't even know where this one came from

Zebfish- Came from (points at the jungle)

Drianna- You help us?

Zebfish- Help (She moves into a position that invites Cash and Drianna on to her back)

Cash- Do we trust do you reckon?

Drianna- Do we have a choice, we wanna find Sinister safely, let's risk it (They slowly make their way onto the Zebfishes back) what do you call yourselves?

Zebfish- Call ourselves!

Cash- We call you Zebfish

Zebfish- Zebfish we called

Drianna- Thanks for this!

Zebfish- Thanks for Zebfish

Cash- I don't know (directed at Drianna in confusion) maybe their, oh I don't know

Drianna- Lets go anyway; do you know where they took friend, yes?

Zebfish- Yes!

Drianna- Cool, want some food (She gives her some bread which the Zebfish spits out and shakes its head at)

Cash- Ok they like bread, giddy up!

(All 15 Zebfish ride off across the sandy, hot landscape whilst ghouls look on in the jungle with XyY)

Ghoul- What are they, they got in our way of the humans?

XyY- They are none of our concern, it's the humans we must kill, masters orders

Ghoul- But they look strong they do, must we kill them too

XyY- I don't think Xylozone cares how you do it, he just wants all humans dead

Ghoul- Shall we attack now?

XyY- No we track them down

Ghoul- But that will take ages sir!

XyY- Wars aren't won in a half-day, we will track them down and we will get our human heads to show Xylozone

Ghoul- How many humans have we killed so far?

XyY- Not many, but the fatalities will come, the robots are hindering us at the moment, but once they are out of the picture us and Lings will take control, agreed?

Ghoul- Yeah let's do it

(Back with Cash and Drianna who are slowly making tracks on the Zebfish)

Cash- I reckon it should take us a few hours to get there!

Drianna- Earth hours?

Cash- Yeah, it probably took Vorn much less time to get there, he's a machine isn't he?!

Drianna- You know where she'll be?

Cash- No of course not, I'm guessing as to where they've taken her, Quiroz's home!

Drianna- Do you think?

Cash- One thing I can remember from the first war clearly is ghouls' attraction with our leader's homes, agree?

Drianna- Yeah good point, we'll see where these Zebfish take us

CUT TO:

(Steve, Jared and Quiroz are all pleasantly driving at pace towards Quiroz's home to make a large final announcement via a visual speech by Quiroz that will go to every human household that has not yet been attacked, Quiroz is rehearsing what he is saying whilst the other two concentrate on dangers they could be hit with)

Quiroz- Sorry to break the news to them who as far it may not... it does not... it may not concern, we are under attack by robots... from robots and potential large threat from ghouls... no aliens, we have given protection to those close to the landings of our attackers, they must fend for themselves until our plan... journey, no plan is put into use, no time to explain that but trust us, we are annoyingly persistent are we humans, let's keep up the good work, when the attackers reach you don't worry, some of you may not be attacked, we hope to sort the problem before that, for now hide... remove from view... no just hide... sound good guys?

Steve- yeah a little bit more impotence to it when it's the real thing

Jared- Yeah and depict in a more worrying way, like I did

Steve- Sorry Jared, but you were useless at delivering speeches sorry

Jared- Well...

(They arrive at Quiroz's house where neither Xykol nor Sinister are there as they are in a different place, they quickly exit the vehicle and run up to the house and open the door where there are robots, Fosterbots waiting for humans, 3 of them)

Jared- Oh my word, shoot quick (All three pull out their Friers and shoot the robots and terminate them)

Quiroz- That was close, now come on let's go quick!

(Outside, Foster approaches the front door and opens it and follows them upstairs, Foster then tries every door in the corridor leading to the room they are in)

Quiroz- Ok should I go, should I say it?

Steve- One second Quiroz, have you sorted it yet Jared?

Jared- These bloody things change all the time, right go it (Sorts out the microphone)

Quiroz- Ok then, you go and sit on the door, stop anything getting in here, here we go. Hello the public of our former earth and our present planet, Sorry to break the news to them who as far it may not concern, we are under attack from robots and a potentially large threat from aliens, we have given protection to those close to the landing of our attackers, they must fend for themselves until our plan is put into use, no time to explain that but trust us, we are annoying persistent are we humans, let's keep up the good work, when the attackers reach you don't worry some of you may not be attacked, we hope to sort the problem before that, for now hide, I hope you don't panic, but this is a genuine warning of a threat, thank you, keep your families safe! (A knock on the door by Foster is heard and he can't open it due to Steve and Jared sitting on it)

Foster- Excuse me, may you open the door?

Jared- Go away please, leave us alone

Foster- I'm sorry I can't do that, we must end this war, you must let me in!

Steve- What do you mean end the war, like a truce?

Foster- Or an admission of defeat by the humans?

Quiroz- Go away

Foster- We will have to use force if otherwise!

Jared- Try us!

Steve- Shhh... what you doing?

Jared- I don't know, acting brave

(Foster kicks the door down and enters the room)

Quiroz- Listen Foster we can talk about this, take a seat!

Foster- I'm sorry, but humans can no longer live here, we must destroy you and the ghouls, please allow termination to begin (Before he can shoot Quiroz who has lined up on the wall with Steve and Jared, the Fosterbüton beside Foster is shot terminated and this dazzles Foster) Show yourself, who are you?

Fred- Xylozone says if anyone is to kill Jared, it is him

Foster- oh of course, where is the ghoul?

Xylozone- Here, now step aside, come on Foster!

Foster- Oh Xylozone let's not argue again, you know I won't kill you, we have a pact

Xylozone- Why can't I just kill him, he's here, just step aside?

Foster- But if that's the case we lose our planet, we need to kill the stronger forces of this planet to take control

Xylozone- You Xyouless are so one dimensional aren't you

Foster- Oh you have no idea do you?!

Xylozone- About what?

Foster- Take him!

Xylozone- What? (A Costerate grabs Xylozone and walks off with him destroying the building because of its size) Drop me now! (Ghouls shoot the Costerate and a XyYtes appears to fight the Costerate who eventually drops Xylozone who runs away from the scene only after throwing an anti-Xysnill which explodes the rest of the building minutes after release)

Fred- Where are we going?

Xylozone- Away from here

Fred- Why?

Xylozone- Give it time that building will blow destroying everything in it

Foster- Now then where were we, ah yes the humans death (The humans still lined up against the wall)

Jared- Shoot him Steve!

Foster- Sorry what was that I hear with the ears you gave me, you want to kill me (He lines up his gun on Quiroz and goes to shoot but the Costerate falls between him and the humans after being forced to the ground by the XyYtes who still fights it)

Steve- lets run, come on quick (They follow him to the vehicle and Foster watches as they manage to just get away from his Galle bullets)

Foster- Costerate, chase them now, Bert's, you follow (The Costerate leaves the fight and runs after the vehicle whilst the XyYtes also tries to track down the Costerate)

Jared- Steve, hurry up they're gaining on us

Steve- yes I can see in the flaming mirror (Roars can be heard by the two massive objects moving after one another whilst the building behind them blows up) Take my phone I have a message or something off Cash I think!

Jared- You can get messages?

Steve- Yeah but only after four or five hours of trying to send the thing, signals poor!

Jared- Whoa it says, keep going, sorry, it says, Quiroz direct him please!

Quiroz- Sure will go left swerve and they will fall over they're huge after all!

Jared- it says (Trying to stay balanced from the swerve of the car) the Zebfish are not harmful, they are helpful, ok so good news, random, and we are the ones who must now turn on the hadron collider, as they have gone to save Sinister, oh my word, Quiroz, direct him to the hadron collider!

Steve- I don't think this thing has enough fuel to get there!

Quiroz- Fly then

Steve- You sure?

Jared- yeah fly, uses less fuel but makes it slower

Steve- Ok, if you're sure (looking confused he does it and they fly off into the distance the Costerate self-implodes terminating both it and killing the XyYtes)
Who built these things?

Jared- The robots obviously, before we left Earth, they're industrious fuel saving methods are confusing to say the least I know

Steve- Whatever!

(After the humans fled the scene, Foster appears from the rubble of the building and zooms his eye sight in on Xylozone and Fred creeping away from the scene quite some distance away vaporizing anything that stands in their way, whether it be human or robot, Fred is less violent however, Foster's skin has peeled away and he looks worn down and angry)

Bert- Master are you ok?

Foster- Actually my Fosterbüton I'm not ok, I feel betrayed somewhat, I feel my patience is reaching an avoidable end, I feel my principle and my loyalties are just about through with, fix my skin, I am going to kill him!

Bert- Who master?

(Foster turns to Bert and rips the rest of his skin off to reveal a robotic mess underneath full of wires and no facial components a part from a mouth, he hands the Fosterbüton the skin)

Foster- Xylozone! (He smiles with his now disabled looking mouth)

CUT TO:

(Xylozone and Fred are still running and manage to find an army of ghouls and XyY waiting for orders)

Xylozone- What the he-

Ghoul- Ah sir, do you wish us to do anything?

Xylozone- Yes, stop standing there like trunks and go terminate some Xyouless please, and the humans, they're not on suicide watch are they?!

Ghoul- Sorry sir

XyY- What's with the stress sir?

Xylozone- Nothing, just stop that Foster coming near me, in fact stop any Xyouless coming towards me please

Fred- And me!

XyY- Yeah you can be quiet Yabby

Xylozone- Yeah Fred, just shut up, has anyone seen Xykol? (Silence) I'll repeat that, has anyone seen Xykol please? (Looking frustrated) Ghouls follow me! Fred you get some of them XyYtes, we can do with more

Ghoul- Where we going sir?

Xylozone- Someone needs to kill Jared, and you are going to help me

Ghoul- What about the robots?

Xylozone- (Whispers) That's what the Yabbies are really here for, to fight off the killing machines, we don't wanna get our hands too dirty now do we?!

Ghoul- That's evil sir (Xylozone smiles)

Xylozone- Ok Fred, get your Yabbies and other soldiers rounded up

Fred- Will do, thanks Xylozone

CUT TO:

(Shows Sinister in the cage still locked up talking to a Fosterbüton guarding her from escaping and with Vorn also watching guard if she manages to get out)

Sinister- So when is Xykol back? Hey I'm talking to you! Robot!

Bert- We refer to ourselves as Bert and Gert thank you!

Sinister- Well answer my question Bert!

Bert- He won't be back till he speaks to our master

Sinister- will he let me out?

Bert- Of course, when you agree to our conditions

Sinister- Which are?

Bert- You become one of us

Sinister- Like Cooker, yeah that's right I know who 'Vorn' really is!

Bert- Cooker doesn't exist anymore, we took every piece human out of him, as for you, it is love for a fellow robot that we admire of you, do you follow?

Sinister- No, Xykol isn't a robot

Bert- Don't speak such blasphemy, of course he is, he's our founder along with Professor Klaus, we were the result of two great races where we not?!

Sinister- You weren't, you aren't anything, you are lifeless, soulless beings with no purpose other than what you are programmed to do, you are a malfunction result, nothing more

Bert- Aren't we merely just an example of order, dignity, everything that our races lack?!

Sinister- Xykol isn't a robots, he never created you, he loves me, that shows he isn't one immediately, he's a soulful object, you are not!

Bert- But we love too!

Sinister- Explain how you love!

Bert- We create with one another, we are a circle of family and friends, and we fight with one another, that's love

Sinister- (Screams from frustration) That's not love, Xykol isn't a robot, end of conversation

Bert- But he is our leader, working with our master, to win more land, and you say we don't have purpose, we can even smile (He pulls off his skin and shows a slight grin and places his skin back on his face. A roar is heard by Vorn outside and Bert immediately walks out to see what the fuss is about)

(It shows a large amount of Zebfish and at the front of them all are Cash and Drianna holding weapons, they are around 100 yards from where the base is that Sinister is prisoner in, Vorn continues to roar)

Cash- We just want the girl, please!

(It's tense as they wait for a reply, Bert then goes to shoot at them but is stopped quickly by Xykol who is dressed in metallic armour and is riding a Xytopiapothe)

Xykol- Wait there, you can't just shoot without an explanation, robot!

Cash- Is that...

Drianna- Xykol I think yeah

Xykol- What would your humans wish to have from them?

Cash- We just want the girl!

Xykol- Ah a Xyerapian girl, don't think I've seen one of them come by

Cash- Its Sinister

Xykol- That name it rings a bell alright

Drianna- Don't act dumb Xykol, you know who she is and she's in there, so help us retrieve her

Xykol- I will as long as these things don't follow you

Cash- Can't do that ghouls I'm afraid, they are important to us, we need an army otherwise what do we have to fight with

Xykol- I'd say your dignity but that won't cut it... do you mind if we enter please (He winks at the robot)

Bert- Yes I suppose so

Xykol- Thank you, Vorn let them through for me please, come on then you humans follow me!

Drianna- What's going on?

Cash- I have no idea, you're the one who knows how these robots tick, why they being so nice to a ghoul, a leading ghoul as well?!

Xykol- So Bert is there a human female in here- excuse me Cash and Drianna I said keep the Zebfish back there

Cash- Oh for goodness sake fine (He symbolises them to stand still and wait which the Zebfish oblige to)

(Shows them walking down dark tunnels which look dangerous and full of booby traps, some of which involving spikes but all characters are unharmed by these methods of security)

Cash- We nearly there robot?

Xykol- Oh where not far off!

Drianna- How would you know?

Xykol- How would I know, interesting question, tell you what I'll give you time to think of what my answer would be!

Drianna- What? (The robot grabs both Cash and Drianna)

Cash- Let us go!

Xykol- Let you go, oh Cash I'm this close to killing you right now so I suggest you be quiet

Cash- What have we done to you, why you treating us like this?

Xykol- I know where Sinister is, I know everything, I know all the three scars as you call them, all their secrets, their weapons, their lies, everything, I'm the manipulator of this beautiful war, and that blinded woman doesn't see a powerful opportunity if it had hit her in the face, she knows nothing of the power that I possess, that my scar possesses

Drianna- Oh yeah and what this scar you speak of?

Xykol- Xyouless, the robots

Drianna- What?

Xykol- Yeah do I have to explain it to you as well as to Sinister, well I tell you what I explain, you two are not welcome here, all you are is what he is (Points back to where they just came from where the roar of Vorn Is heard) a human transformed into one of our pets, and believe me we have plenty of them, we took earth and we are going to take Curiumite, meanwhile finishing off the human race (He smacks Drianna across the face and punches Cash in the stomach)

Cash- You won't get away with this!

Xykol- This isn't one of your human cop shows, this is real life, who's going to save you a bunch of old men who used to lead the human race, Jared ha-ha, yeah of course, although he's not an issue anymore, he'll be dead soon, might even be dead now, Xylozone wants to kill him so much

Drianna- So what are you?

Xykol- I'm a ghoul who saw clarity, saw we had no future, I predicted this years ago, ask your friend Sinister she'll tell you all about the garth religion, believe me I wanna see the ghoul race burn as well the human race, years of being understudied by my brother, Xyrex and his huge egotistical ways of messing with my mind, that's why he's dead, but I'm sure Jared told you that!

Cash- What?

Xykol- OH you haven't heard, well it doesn't matter anyway you're going down this waterfall anyway, your bodies will never be found until fossilized and good riddents to both of you (They are taken to the edge of the cliff which leads to a large waterfall that was in the background of the scene and is now where the scene is situated)

Cash- Wait, before you kill us surely we deserve to know the truth about our loved ones and our lies we have been suffering all these years

Xykol- Sinister's alive, don't worry about that, how human she is, is another question

Cash- Oh is she like him then yeah?

Xykol- Nope, she is special, she's my project, my love, you will be like Vorn, so much hope ruined by us using you as a pig for slaughter

Cash- What you gonna do throw us off here and hope we die?

Xykol- That's what these weapons are for, I think it's time you humans faced up to facts, robots are more intelligent, you have created a monster as have the ghouls for sure, but I will not be held responsible for this destruction of the soulless, as I am just fighting for my own survival in this petty universe of ours, although I don't like you that much anyway Cash, I know you feelings for my Sinister

Cash- Are you joking, you're not even a human, ey I might discriminating here, but you are just an alien, she wouldn't touch you with a barge pole

Xykol- Kill him, shoot him dead... NOW!

Cash- Wait...

Xykol- Just kill hi-

Cash- Do you hear that? The roar, its stopped, what's happened to Vorn?! (Acting in control of the situation)

Xykol- Bert go check on Vorn

Bert- Yes sir absolutely (Bert goes off to check)

Xykol- Now you both shut up and stay put (He aims his gun but before he fires the trigger a piece of robots is thrown towards him and lands besides him) What? (He looks behind at the tunnel they came down to enter the cliff edge of the waterfall to see Zebfish running down in their numbers) You got lucky this time (He presses a button and this opens a passage to the room Sinister is locked in, the place they are in has been built by many robots whilst they have been on Curiumite from simple elements brought from earth, as Xykol escapes the path of the Zebfish he shoots Cash in the shin and misses Drianna's head just, Cash is in pain and doesn't move out of the way of the Zebfish who are running with no slowing up in sight and Drianna takes matters into her own hands and pulls Cash off the cliff away from the Zebfish who would have run them over due to momentum and they land in the water of the waterfall below safely following them making it the Zebfish all splash in the water too but they can swim under it and so they offer Cash and Drianna a ride on their backs)

Cash- What the heck?

Drianna- I'm sorry but you were in pain I just took matters into my own hands

Cash- Its fine I'm amazed were alive and that I'm in so much pain (holding his shin)

Drianna- Can you walk?

Cash- I don't know yet do I, maybe, we'll see

Drianna- Well let's just relax hey for now, let it get better

Cash- Yeah you're right, where are we?

Drianna- I don't know but it's beautiful, I've never been underground on Curiumite before, I mean an underground waterfall, it was amazing

Cash- Yeah well we were too busy to take in the natural beauty really weren't we

Drianna- Ok I understand you're in pain but just relax

Cash- No, we didn't get Sinister, she's a slave to them and I knew that Xykol was a snake

Drianna- Listen she'll be fine she's a tough cookie, don't worry about her!

Cash- You promise? (Smiles)

Drianna- (Smiles back) Is your phone alright?

Cash- I don't know (he pulls it out) No its broken, why are we running away from this?

Drianna- From what?

Cash- This attack on us humans, we are the top of the evolutionary chain, and we run away like cowards, why aren't we all fighting rather than running

Drianna- That's the mentality we have unfortunately

Cash- No it's the wrong mentality, we need attack them, we can't just run forever

Drianna- But we're not as strong

Cash- But god damn we may die, but shouldn't we at least fight for our lives rather than face the inevitable

Drianna- Listen if you want to try and get people to fight then you do that, but trust it's not easy

Cash- Isn't it, look below us (Points at the Zebfish) we have loads of these fighting for us, they love us, theirs a mutual respect, we should use them to our advantage

CUT TO:

(Shows Xykol in the room with Sinister again)

Xykol- Tell you what my love your friends are complete nuisances I tell you

Sinister- Don't ever call me that

Xykol- Oh Sinister lighten up this isn't the girl I fell in love with

Sinister- You're gonna pay for all this, trust me

Xykol- Oh Sinister you'll be fighting for the robots before you know it trust me, I suggest you shut up now (He bites a weird shaped fruit and the juice runs down his chin and drips to the floor) Where's Vorn, the useless monster never did anything to protect me before?

Sinister- how should I know?!

Xykol- Right so that's another job I have to do, unbelievable look for him talk to Foster, it's just all building up isn't it, stress of being emperor hey

Sinister- Yeah (laugh under breath and rolls her eyes)

(Shows Xykol exit the room and leave the building with Sinister shouting 'come back I need food please', Xykol passes a Fosterbüton and Xykol orders him)

Xykol- Bert look after the girl for me please!

CUT TO:

(Steve parks up the vehicle they are in next to the hadron collider and Jared, Steve and Quiroz all leave the vehicle to check it out)

Quiroz- Should one of us not stay with the vehicle?

Jared- If you want to stay I suppose you can

Quiroz- I was just thinking anything could be in those woods waiting to blow up our only form of transport

Steve- Does it make a difference, look at the size of this thing, is it meant to be small?

Jared- Well obviously when we were younger it was much larger, but as time goes on things seem to get smaller, you watch one day, we'll have nuclear arms on our wrists

Steve- Ok, do you reckon any ghouls or robots know how to work it?

Jared- They shouldn't really no, I don't really know

Steve- Great to see the plans are solid, they definitely won't fail (Sarcasm)

Jared- Hey it was your kids that came up with it

Steve- At least they were using their heads, unlike two of our leaders

Jared- You're right we should've been prepared for this, I'm sorry

Steve- Listen, were all in this together no matter what, I suppose I shouldn't argue with you

(Shows in the woods looking on Xylozone with bugs and weird shaped small animals crawling around them but Xylozone ignores these specimens as he only has eyes for Jared)

Ghoul- When do we kill him sir?

Xylozone- Don't worry, we will all feel vengeance soon, just takes a bit of patience, look at him standing there proud, he won't be feeling in a minute, give me the weapon?

XyY- Here you go sir (Hands him the weapon that the ghouls tend to use)

Xylozone- Follow my lead! (He creeps out of the woods slowly and Quiroz notices and hides behind the vehicle quickly)

Quiroz- Psst... Jared, Steve, run away (Whispers)

Jared- What? Oh my...

Steve- What is that?

Xylozone- You're gonna suffer for what you did Jared!

(Before he shoots Vorn attacks a lot of ghouls behind Xylozone)

Steve- Run to the vehicle

Jared- What about the hadron collid-

Steve- Ignore it for now, we can't use it yet until all humans are off the planet anyway

Quiroz- No I told them to go to the express

Steve- Why?

Quiroz- Your son told me to

Steve- We can't stay here waiting

Xylozone- Attack him, kill the beast (Vorn flings any ghoul of XyY that tries to attack him)

Ghoul- What should we do?

Xylozone- XyYtes, where are they?

Ghoul- Don't know sir

Xylozone- You lot don't know anything, where Xykol? Oh you don't know, just kill him fight for me, Yabbies are more useful

(Steve, Jared and Quiroz are in the vehicle)

Steve- So are we just waiting here

Quiroz- Could go the express

Jared- not enough fuel

Steve- And we'll get to earth and the robots will just kill us when they get back, that's what the black hole is for to destroy the robots on this planet

(The vehicle is rocking from side to side from the war outside)

Quiroz- Surely we can't stay here waiting to die

Jared- They'll probably fight it out and kill one another, let's just wait

Quiroz- There's a cliff down there, why don't we go to that, it's a safer spot is it not

Steve- I agree, let's get out of here hey!

(They move away slowly due to a lack of fuel and make their way to the edge of the cliff 200 yards down the sandy land)

Xylozone- No, they're getting away, ghouls shoot them, shoot the vehicle

Ghoul- Sir where busy shooting this thing (Vorn roars whilst knocking ghouls and XyY away and then Vorn starts chasing the vehicle down and nearly catches up but they just about escape just over the cliff and land a safeish distance away and Vorn roars again)

Xylozone- They got away, right get back in the trees come on! (He runs and all his men follow)

(Vorn runs back and tries to sniff them out and roars in frustration before running back in the direction he came)

Xylozone- Won't get anywhere with that monstrous thing roaming the planet

XyY- Sir what did the humans want with that machine?

Xylozone- What that machine does is not an interest of mine

Ghoul- But sir it could be the key!

Xylozone- Did I ask for your opinion, there's one thing I want, a lifeless father killer in my hands, tell the Yabbies to get here

Ghoul- How sir?

Xylozone- Just contact them by any means, I want the Yabbies, I want the XyYtes, and I want every damn Xyouless possible...

Ghoul- How do we do that sir?

Xylozone- Tell Foster we want a war, and whoever wins, gets this planet, but it's only a distraction for while I kill Jared, this will be the battlefield where everything ends

Ghoul- You sure sir?

Xylozone- Oh I'm sure, Xyrex would be proud of me, Xyrant wants this great war to end here I can hear him, the prophecy is fulfilled here, I sense it, and will one of you please find Xykol, get all the Lings as well, I don't care about their peaceful attitude they came here to fight for Stellioplaneta, and they will, you make sure you tell Foster that too...

Foster- Tell me yourself Xylozone! I hear a war is happening, when would you like to partake in this war?

Xylozone- When are shadows clash

Foster- Precisely twelve hours then?

Xylozone- LopelQuex hours, that's plenty of time, lets fight shall we

Foster- Oh Xylozone, I used to admire thee, now I can't wait to kill you, I'll see you in 12 my ghoul (He walks away with his back up Fosterbütons)

CUT TO:

(Shows Cash waking up on solid concrete Curium and he walks out of a large cave with a river running through the middle, it is bright out of the cave and as he goes to walk out to check where he is, he is disturbed by a noise of stones falling, he looks around and notices nothing, he continues on to the edge of a large waterfall which leads to a forest and in the very distance is another cliff, beyond that is a mountain and he knows from memory that over that mountain is where the hadron collider is, he looks across to see humans lined in couples like Noah's ark. He shouts to them)

Cash- Hey guys, people, we gotta war to win, humans, come on, don't ignore this is important, guys (They continue to walk into the express) You are walking into a certain death, earth isn't safe yet, use your brains...

Person (large rough looking male, all the humans are dressed rough)- But you said earth is good now, it's safe

Cash- No, it isn't I swear to you, please stay

Person- Why do you care, you're an ex-convict!

Cash- No I was innocent, stop haunting me about that (Someone touches his shoulder, it's a woman's hand and this make him panic before he turns around) You! Mum what are you... you're dead?!

Mother- I am, but I will always be in here (Points to Cash's head) and here (points to his heart) That never goes away

Mother- You're very special

Cash- How do you know, you barely know me, I was in prison

Mother- I watch you every day, I know you were innocent, you have never done anything untoward, and you have grown as a person since being in prison, I'm proud of you

Cash- And that makes me special?

Mother- Yes, but what else makes you special is your importance to us all

Cash- I'm important?

Mother- Very, You're the only one who can change the fate of mankind, trust me, you think we should fight, you don't agree with running, that shows the integrity that all us humans should have, and that makes you a leader, that makes you the most important person on Curiumite

Cash- This is just a dream, it's no prophecy

Mother- It's an insightful message from your sub conscious delivered by someone you will rightfully listen to

Cash- What do I do?

Mother- You are a leader, like I said, you can do anything, you need to tell people what to do, you need to be more forceful with those humans, or else they will enter darkness, don't allow it to happen, because let me tell you entering darkness from experience has given me enough clarity to tell you this

Cash- I need help though!

Mother- When the time comes you'll help yourself, and you won't even know it, the war starts from the moment you accept it, and by my timing you accepted that a war will take place sometime ago, its catch up time, love will help you make the right choice...

Cash- Thanks mum (She disappears and the ground begins to shake and Cash is awoken by Drianna)

Drianna- Cash, you ok?

Cash- Yeah I saw mum

Drianna- I dream about her too

Cash- Yeah but this was so vivid, I could feel her touch me, I could smell the trees in the wind, I could hear every baby cry

Drianna- Yeah sounds awesome, so what's the plan, the Zebfish are waiting?

(Cash gets up and walks to the edge of the cliff just like the dream with the Zebfish standing by, he looks on proud and listens to hear people in the background)

Cash- We're gonna fight, no more running

Drianna- No more running (Smiles)

Cash- Let's go! (They jump on the Zebfish and ride off down the hill of the cliff to the forest below)

CUT TO: EVENING

(Shows Jared, Steve and Quiroz sitting around a fire in a cave on the cliff they crash landed on, it's now evening)

Jared- Do you think we've lost the hadron collider?

Steve- Possibly

Jared- Let's hope they don't want it

Steve- I doubt they won't be curious as to what powers it has

Jared- I'm just waiting for Xylozone to kill me, he's gonna come right down here, and he's gonna kill me I just know it

Steve- Don't worry about it, he's not gonna find us, he probably thinks Vorns finished us off

Jared- No he wants to see my face, my lifeless face I can tell, theses ghouls they're all the same.

Quiroz- I wonder how all the other humans are surviving!

Jared- Not well, probably half way to Earth by now

Steve- No, they're not going anywhere, I think they'll stay, I have feeling there is a lot more to this yet

Quiroz- Jared, don't worry about Xylozone, he won't find us

Jared- Will you protect me?

Steve- Hey that's what us old guys are for isn't it, to look out for each other

Quiroz- Yeah you two may be old, I am fresh I am

Steve- You'll be the first to go then won't you?!

Quiroz- Shut up ha-ha

Steve- We'll be fine, don't worry

CUT TO: EVENING

(Shows the robot headquarters on the planet at the express from before, this is not the express used by humans as this one runs much quicker and efficiently, all the robots are building away to make weapons and other robots as if it were a huge workshop, with Foster looking on proud, he turns around to leave the large warehouse room to see Xykol who is waiting for him)

Xykol- Foster

Foster- Master Ghoul, pleasure to finally have the time to talk to you

Xykol- Yeah it's good to see you've been so busy, how many human have to killed since you been here?

Foster- Well master, it has to be said we have struggled to find them in that department, we have only killed 4,067 humans

Xykol- Ok, they a belligerent bunch after all, we'll have them all killed soon anyway

Foster- yes absolutely, we should kill them after the war

Xykol- The war, the war with what?

Foster- The ghouls, time for you to shine master, prove you allegiance to us

Xykol- What about the humans, are they not involved?

Foster- Why would they, it's futile for them to be involved

Xykol- Oh I don't think you realise that humans can very powerful when they want to be, because unlike you they have hearts, they go a long way, especially with my kind, do I get to see Xylozone die if I go to war?

Foster- Well master, it wouldn't be too safe to allow you to fight, we thought you should stay with the human girl, try tempt her to become our princess

Xykol- Yes I suppose that would be a sensible option, so when does the war start?

Foster- Master it kicks off in around Nuex hours

Xykol- Not long then, better get building, oh and don't worry about the humans, I know how to push their buttons (Smiles)

Foster- I wouldn't dare question you sir (Xykol walks off and Foster watches back over the robot working away)

CUT TO: EVENING

(Xylozone is looking down on all of his ghouls, Lings and Yabbies from the top of the express that they crash landed on next to a river, the one that runs through the forest)

Fred- What do you want me to tell my Yabbies then?

Xylozone- That we're going to war, the robots will be there, and we will kill them

Fred- And Xykol?

Xylozone- I have to presume he's dead

Fred- Either that or he ran away

Xylozone- I'm starting think he's not the ghoul I thought he was

Ling- Sir, I have news from Xyborth

Xylozone- You said it correctly, what happened to your language?

Ling- We still talk in Bq, however we find it more appropriate to join our fellow ghouls rather than bicker over a lost cause

Xylozone- Thank you, that's very noble (He shakes hands with the random Ling)

Ling- Thanks, now here's Xyborth

Xylozone- Xyborth speak to me how are things back there?

Xyborth- Good, Stellioplaneta is still standing, you've taken longer than I expected, but the news is I'm sending more XyYtes to you in an express, and my directory of landing is quite accurate, so don't worry

Xylozone- I trust you Xyborth (He puts the communicator own) I trust you (he turns to his people and shouts to them and they slowly appear to take note) My soldiers of war, my allies (Looks at Fred and the other Yabbies) Yabbies, Lings, Garth's, XyYtes, are you ready for this war? (Slight reply) I said are you ready for this war; it's the making of us? (They reply louder) Well then, it's quite a distance to the battle field (He smiles) Shall we make our way to fight and destroy the Xyouless (They cheer and march in their numbers beneath him, around 4 million different fighters with expresses being prepared to land and join the battle)

Fred- And Xylozone, what are you doing in war, will you be leading us?

Xylozone- No

Fred- Oh and what will you be doing?

Xylozone- Doing what I came here for, killing my father's murderer, the war is a side issue

Fred- The war is everything

Xylozone- What? When did you get a voice?!

Fred- As soon as I realised that you don't care about the fighters you're sending out to war

Xylozone- I have to do this

Fred- No, no, your selfishness needs it, you need to protect your men with all your will

Xylozone- No, you may be blinded still but I'm not, I'm not letting that human win again, I'm sorry, but your new ego will have to fight at war, I have other priorities!

Fred- So be it, we'll try our best (ironic)

(Fred walks off brushing Xylozone to the side leaving the ghoul to contemplate)

CUT TO: EVENING

(Shows Cash and Drianna riding the Zebfish to a point in the forest where they jump off and run to the humans entering the express)

Cash- Stop!

Drianna- Stop right there!

Human (All like the dream in ragged clothes and long facial hair or frizzy hair for the females)- What?

Cash- You have to stay!

Human#2- And who are you to say what we should and shouldn't do?

Cash- Look at you all, there's far too many to fit in this and all escape before the robots kill us off our guard

Human- We were directed here by Quiroz

Cash- Yeah well ignore him, we are staying here and we are fighting

Human- Fighting? (Laughs) What with?

Drianna- It sounds silly but listens!

Human#2- Sounds ludicrous

Cash- No you have to stay all of you!

Human- Every one of us?

Cash- We can't run, its suicide, we may as well die trying to protect ourselves, and believe me we will all prosper

(Asian person speaks in his native tongue)

Asian male- What he say?

Cash- We'll need interpreters come on!

Human- Face it we ain't fighting, not at such short notice, no weapons, no help, no nothing, all we can do is run

Cash- Listen we ran last time, how far did that get us

Human#2- In terms of mileage, pretty far

Human- What's your point?

Cash- We ran away from earth and we lost men, and now look where getting attacked again, we're losing humans anyway, not everyone's made it, families are being torn apart, there's 9 billion humans, and I'm one who willing to fight for us all

Human- Tempting but no, sorry

Cash- All I need is two more people to spread the news that we are going to war

Human- Listen you're gonna make us all miss our express and the people are getting angry, look at the queue

Cash- Fine (he whistles and the Zebfish run out in their numbers from the forest shaking some people off the bridge (Not far off the ground) leading to the entrance of the express, around 10,000 Zebfish) Please!

Human- You gotta... more of them?

Cash- Yeah, oh yeah (Drianna pats Cash on the head) and we got weapons, and in the war we'll have our dignity (People stop on the bridge and slowly make their way down chanting and cheering, making Cash smile with pride)

Drianna- What's the plan now?

Cash- Well I have to tell Xykol that we are not letting him take our planet without a fight, and you Drianna, you're gonna find dad, Jared and Quiroz, and you're gonna tell them and reassure them that they're gonna be safe, ok?

Drianna- Ok

Cash- Lets make it quick, we need to act fast to catch all of them out with the hadron collider

Drianna- we still using that?

Cash- It's all part of the plan (Smiles)

CUT TO: STAR RISING LIKE THE SUN OF OLD

(Steve, Jared and Quiroz are all awakening from their half sleep in the cave on the cliff behind the falling water of the waterfall)

Steve- Sleep well Jared?

Jared- I didn't really, that noise of the water and the worry for my life saw me lose some hours

Steve- Quiroz?

Quiroz- I could go back to sleep quite comfortably yeah

Steve- Good to see you're not worried about us humans

Jared- I know you're a worse leader than me, were stuck here with no place to go, no way out

Quiroz- Oh will the pair of you calm down, there's always a way out, trust me

(From a shadow behind the water appears Drianna on the Zebfish)

Steve- Drianna, how did you, how?

Drianna- Come to rescue you and throw you in the fire of war

Jared- How did you know we were here?

Drianna- The Zebfish, they can smell you from miles off

Quiroz- I told you guys, there's no such thing as no way out

Jared- You got lucky this time Quiroz

Drianna- So ready to fight at war?

Quiroz- Sorry?

Drianna- Yeah, Cash has managed to get the human race to fight?

Quiroz- All of them?

Drianna- Well, not all of them, women and children along with around 6 or 7 billion men had already gone back to Earth

Jared- So we have only half a billion men against this race of robots and ghouls, we don't a chance, our weaponry isn't strong enough

Drianna- We'll see how they deal with swords and old fashioned guns ey, lets not forget the water guns as well, the robots might have a fight on their hands

Steve- How many of each race are there fighting?

Drianna- Don't exact numbers but around 500 million Ghouls and other aliens I think

Steve- What is my son thinking?

Drianna- He told me to trust him, and I did, you should trust him too, you in?

Jared- Yes

Quiroz- Really, you're risking your old body on this futile war?

Jared- I may be old, but at least I have something to give, what is the point in running from inevitable death, when we can fight with our head held high!

Drianna- Wow best speech you've ever done Jared

Jared- Shut up ha-ha

Steve- I'm in too, I can't watch my son and daughter fight it out, I missed the last war on earth I sure as hell ain't gonna miss this one on Curiumite (Drianna smiles)

Drianna- Quiroz, come on we got the Zebfish backing us here, we haven't got time to contemplate the war starts soon, very soon

(Quiroz rests his head against the wall to consider)

CUT TO:

(Cash is without his Zebfish and other humans as he hides behind a rock right by the building in which Sinister is locked in, he creeps towards the entrance, Vorn sis no longer there hence why he walks through, still armed just in case however, he creeps further into the building and finds the room Sinister is in)

Sinister- Cash?

Cash- Shhh... calm down, I'm gonna get you out of here

Sinister- Where's the key?

Cash- I was gonna ask you that

Sinister- Don't look at me!

Cash- Damn, stand back (He shoots the lock but it doesn't work)

Xykol- (Sneaks in just behind Cash and enters the room) you know it requires a lock for that cage to be opened

Cash- Xykol, nice to see you (He aims his weapon at him, and Xykol aims his weapon at him)

Xykol- Do you also know that key will not be used until a certain miss love of my life accepts me in bonding and becomes my princess of the robot race

Sinister- Shove it Xykol, as if

Xykol- (He laughs hysterically to himself) Will you ever give up on your principles girl, I loved you more than any ghoul, you where mine, my project, my purpose, without you, what's the point?

Cash- You back off (As he approaches closer)

Xykol- And then I thought, I'm finally a leader of a race, just like my brother, all the envy escaped my cold blooded veins, and then thought again, I'm the assistant leader of the ghouls, I'm a very powerful man in this universe we all call home, but I like many was still lonely, I need a love, I need you Sinister, and this man offers you nothing, NOTHING!

Cash- Let her go! (He says softly to the agitated Xykol)

Xykol- No, I won't let her go, I can't let her go, this isn't about, or at least it wasn't about winning wars, taking land, it was about my love, but now, all I want is to see humanity crash and burn along with the ghouls

Cash- You're quite evil aren't you?

Xykol- No, I'm not evil, I'm determined

Cash- You basically killed your own brother

Xykol- No Jared did, I just gave him the nod (Smiles)

Cash- Thing is with Xyrex was he was a negotiator

Xykol- I can negotiate

Cash- Care to allow the humans to fight in this war too then, you can finish both races off at once, sound good?

Xykol- Why its suicide, love it, tell you what let's make it interesting, I'll bring Sinister along Sinister- Like a pig for slaughter, thanks?

Xykol- I will bring the key, if you kill me in war, you can unlock her and I give her to you, you steal her heart, if I win, she bonds with me to become my princess

Sinister- Accept it Cash, what have you got to lose

Cash- We'll see you in a few hours (Smiles and approaches Sinister) Don't worry, I'll save you I promise

Xykol- Back off, you need to win her first (Smiles) now go, before I kill you now (He waves him off and Cash leaves the scene, Xykol looks into Sinister's eyes) You're quite the troublemaker aren't you, I'm gonna make your life hell when he loses, you watch, but its only because I love you this much (He widens his arms)

Sinister- (Laughs) Do I care?!

Xykol- We'll see, oh we'll see!

CUT TO:

(Shows Foster walking with Vorn and his millions of robots behind him as they march towards the warzone. It then skips to the aliens walking in the same manner chanting a anthem which all races on Stellioplaneta sing, it is in Ghonguage so the audience don't know what they are saying, but it is along the lines of 'Xyrrant, Garth, Lings, Xyrex, we fight for them, we fight for ourselves, but we live for no one other than us ghouls, life continues I a manner that we live, in a manner we thrive, in the way that we call right, GHOULS, GHOULS, GHOULS' they repeat this as they march on with the Yabbies in front with two lots of huge XyYtes at their side)

Yabby- So Fred, where's Xylozone?

Fred- Apparently he had business to attend to

Yabby- More important than this?

Fred- Yeah, some alliance we have here hey?!

Yabby- Do you even know what they are saying?

Fred- What their chanting is complete Ghonguage to me

Yabby- Can we chant in Yabbish?

Fred- No, no more confrontations with the Ghouls, especially not today

(Shows the crowded army of Ghouls journey through the trees as the star of the solar system of Curiumite rises higher in the sky. Meanwhile the robots make their way towards the hadron collider and stop as the Ghouls enter from the cactus trees, they stand there standing at one another, Foster stares into the eyes of Fred and other ghouls behind)

CUT TO:

(Quiroz still contemplating about whether to fight)

Steve- Come on Quiroz, decide! You can't let us down now!

Quiroz- Ok, ok I'll fight

Drianna- Brilliant, another man

Jared- A decision of a true leader right there

Quiroz- I'm no leader, I step down, Cash is the real leader, you Drianna are a real leader too

Jared- Agreed

Steve- So proud of you both

(Xylozone enters form the water)

Xylozone- Yes yes well done, well done

Drianna- Xylozone?

Xylozone- Yes

Drianna- Drianna remember me?

Xylozone- How can forget, you were there when my father was killed, you never stopped it happening, all I need is Cash and the whole thing will be quite fitting really, as you watch the man who killed my father parish

Quiroz- Hey you leave him alone

Xylozone- Sorry Quiroz, you have no worth here

Jared- No Quiroz, its fine

Xylozone- Yeah Quiroz, let him die, he's old and useless anyway

Drianna- Xylozone, you have got this all wrong

Xylozone- Oh yeah, how, I saw it, Xykol told me just to keep it clear in my mind, Jared you killed my father, you put the bullet through his (Teary) you killed him!

Drianna- No, Xykol killed him

Xylozone- What? (Laughs it off)

Jared- Your uncle Xykol killed him, your father's brother, Xyrex's brother forced his death

Xylozone- No, I saw you kill him (he points the weapon at Jared) you're gonna pay for that

CUT BACK:

(Both the robots and ghouls look in the distance to see a large crowd of humans heading towards them. Xykol walks to the front of the robots along with Foster, prompting the ghouls to whisper Xykol's name in shock)

Foster- We have one special guest, can I introduce to you a fellow ghoul, Xykol!

Xykol- Hello ghouls

Fred- What are you doing over there?

Xykol- What are you doing fighting for Stellioplaneta, in fact you where that desperate you got those Bq talking imbeciles from Ling country who don't know how to fight, that planet really is in tatters (Robots show no emotion behind him)

Fred- Wait till Xylozone sees this

Xykol- Oh no, not my nephew, what's he going to do destroy me with toy gun?!

Xykol- No bring forth the girl, and place her by that machine (Points at the hadron collider)

(They roll her forward in her cage with her mouth taped)

Fred- Who is that?

Xykol- Nothing that concerns you Yabs

Fred- Were Yabbies

Xykol- Yeah ok, well she is human bate (He smiles as he looks at the humans get closer, and then stop at the distance where they can't communicate with any of the other races) bit of a distance but ok!

Cash- Right then (He shouts to the humans all on Zebfish back waiting for orders of battle) this is the one guys, the legend, the men who fought for our planet, the men who fought for our race, the men who fought not because they had to, but because they have dignity (The crowd chant 'DIGNITY') it's because we feel emotion, we have soul, we have children who look up to us, we may be an average Joe, but every human has their day, AND YOUR DAY IS NOW (They chant in agreement and Cash smiles as he watches on)

CUT TO:

Jared- Shoot me please, like you said I deserve it

Drianna- You don't

Jared- I do I was a coward, I should've said no, like he said I put the bullet into Xyrex, I'm sorry

Xylozone- Why did you (He lowers his gun) I wanna know?

Drianna- Because he-

Xylozone- No I wanna hear it from Jared, no one else (Teary eyed)

Jared- I was threatened

Xylozone- By Xykol?

Jared- Yes, he said either I shoot Xyrex and keep his secret hidden, or he would have attacked the human race, he never stuck to his promise why would he, he's manipulative and evil, he threatened to kill the boy, the boy being you

FLASHBACK:

(Shows a younger Jared and Xyrex talking with Xyrex on his knees)

Xyrex- Please Jared, I need you to do this one favour, and the ghouls will leave you to peace on Curiumite

Jared- What's the favour?

Xyrex- You're going to have to kill me, shoot me in front of the boy, shoot me in front of my own son!

Jared- What no

Xyrex- Do you think I would come to you Jared, my nemesis, if it wasn't important, please?

Jared- I can't

Xyrex- You can please, make it believable, we let you escape to Curiumite on your express, but you have to kill me, if you don't Xykol, my brother, my own brother, he will kill my son, he'll Xylozone Quex, you have to kill me so he leaves my son alone, shield my son from the truth, otherwise he will attack the human race

Jared- How?

Xyrex- He'll... get the robots to attack; he leads them now, please for both of our races you have to kill me

Jared- For the boy and for our race I will, but if it backfires

Xyrex- Please, it won't backfire, the prophecy on Stellioplaneta says-

Jared- No forget about the prophecy, I've all about it, I'll do it

Xyrex- Your race will be safe now from us and from the robots if they keep their word!

Jared- It's not for the humans, it's for Xylozone Quex, he holds the key to our two races becoming allies, he's vital as you know, he's the future, I'm doing, I'm killing you, to save his life (Xyrex cries in Jared's arms) we have to make this believable though for Xylozone's sake

Xyrex- I'll tell Xykol the news

CUT TO: FINAL SCENES OF THE FIRST FILM

Xyrex- Xykol!

Xykol- Yeah?

Xyrex- You take good care of my boy, you teach him well yeah?

Xykol- Yeah ok, why?

Xyrex- Just go, for my boys safety, and tell Xygail I love her, goodbye Xykol

Xykol- Ok... bye then (confused and turns to Xylozone and smiles) come on Xylozone

Xylozone- But daddy

Xykol- The humans are going to take him for a while

Xylozone- I love you daddy (Shouts)

Xyrex- JUST GO!

(He pulls Xylozone round the corner and away)

Jared- You know I have to do this?

Xyrex- As long as you know that I had to do what I did (teary eyed) we have to be careful don't we?

Jared- Goodbye Xyrex (He shoots Xyrex; nothing is seen except for Jared standing there with a gun that is Smokey from the bullet just fired, He walks off towards the Curiumite express and sits away from the others and looks out the window and takes a pill for an ulcer, and tries to sleep as if he's done nothing wrong)

Cash- I can't believe you!

Jared- When a feud has lasted this long a conclusion had to happen, that boy, Xylozone when the time comes will understand, I've just saved his life

Cash- How?

Jared- You'll see, in good time

CUT BACK TO REAL TIME:

(Xylozone drops his weapon on the floor and kneels down to cry, Jared half walks towards him to comfort him)

Jared- It's alright, he did it for you

Xylozone- No, get away from me, you killed my father, you back off (He backs away and Xylozone runs off) I don't believe you (He shouts)

Jared- At least he didn't kill me

Drianna- (laughs) Lets go, we got a war to catch! Weapons at the ready!

CUT TO: WAR

Cash- (Still talking to his humans) that woman there (sinister) she means the world, she needs to be saved too, we may be a small army, we may be small in size and we may be weaker, but mentally we are TOUGH, we have HEART, let's do this for our families, let's make them proud, let's do this for our dignity (They agree and shout)

Xykol- Listen to them chanting!

Foster- I know

Cash- (He turns to them again) For humanity (Smiles and runs off and the rest follow to war with their weapons out, swords, guns new age weapons, everything)

Fred- Their running what does that mean?

(Xylozone puts his hand on his shoulder)

Xylozone- It means war is starting (He smiles wiping a tear from his eye)

Foster- Their making movements

Xykol- War has started! (They charge at both the ghouls and the humans with everyone roaring as they approach each other's race)

(The war starts with Vorn brushing aside humans and ghouls who approach him and his race whilst others fight around him. Xykol walks off to the cage where Sinister is, away from the war. Xylozone notices this and sneaks away from the battle to approach Xykol and looks angry. Fred fights off against the robots with his Yabbies who seem to have the better of the Fosterbütons and the Zostergurons. The Costerates shoot the Duobütons at the humans, and the humans struggle to get rid of the robots in time. The XyYtes begin to attack the Costerates and the juggernaut humans also join in in their numbers with the war of the large ones of the war, the Costerates wipe away the juggernauts for a time and then struggle against the XyYtes. The Costerate is pushed on top of lots of robots. The XyY manage to get the better of most humans, but the ghouls are struggling against them slightly, the Lings however are lost at battle and they are walking around clueless as to how to fight and try and protect themselves by staying at the back of the ghouls' army. Cash fights his way past a few Fosterbütons to reach Xylozone and Xykol)

Xykol- Is what true, are you blind Xylozone?

Xylozone- I just need confirmation, am I really your uncle?

Xykol- Who told you?

Xylozone- No one, I've known for a while, I just need confirmation?

Xykol- Yeah, I am, you're my nephew (He smiles) a hug, Xyrex never wanted me to tell you, he had something against me; I miss him just as much as you do (Smiling with arms open for a hug)

(Xylozone looks on angry at him)

Xylozone- I'm gonna kill you

Xykol- What?

Xylozone- (He pushes Xykol to the ground) I'm gonna kill you

Xykol- Why, what are you doing?

Xylozone- Because you're a liar, and you killed my father

Xykol- That would be a good reason, but you saw Jared, he killed him, not me, it's the humans you want to kill, come on Xylozone, we've been working on this for years, the destruction of the humans, and I thought we may as well take over the planet with the robots (He smiles waiting for an answer)

Sinister- Don't listen to him he lies

Xykol- Honey, please (Smiling at Sinister)

Xylozone- (He puts his arm out to help him up off the ground and Xykol accepts it) you're not honest are you?! I don't know who you are, I can't kill you if that's the case

Cash- Step aside, I'll kill him then (Xylozone checks who it is and steps to the side and nods at Cash and smiles)

Xylozone- I'll tell the ghouls, we ain't fighting you humans anymore

Cash- Good to hear, now go (Smiling) that leaves Xykol, oh what do we do with you?!

Xykol- Shoot me, try, you won't get away with it, oh and XYLOZONE, YOU REALLY ARE A COWARD, JUST LIKE YOUR FATHER!

Xylozone- Whatever (He swallows his pride and walks away to do what he told Cash he was going to do)

Cash- You've got no one Xykol apart from some artificial allies who may work for you, but never love you, no one will

Xykol- I beg to differ (A Vorn steps up right behind Cash and roars before being knocked to the ground by four Zebfish being rid by Drianna, Steve, Jared and Quiroz)

Drianna- No, we beg to differ (Vorn gets up again and roars at the Zebfish and Jared and Quiroz shoot at Vorn and Vorn grows weaker and can hardly roar, he still manages to have energy to knock them off their horses, and as Vorn is about to kill Drianna, she stabs him in the heart with a sword, Drianna breathes heavily with worry but Vorn slowly begins to fall on top of her as he is dead but the Zebfish charge into Vorn knocking him into a clear path)

Xykol- I'VE HAD ENOUGH OF THIS! (He pulls out a weapon and points at Cash, who also has a weapon pointed at Xykol)

Drianna- Hey leave him alone!

Cash- Just go Drianna, go dad, find Foster and find Xylozone, the ghouls will help us now, Foster needs to die! (They oblige and run off fighting Fosterbütons who approach them) Awkward situation, don't you think?

Xykol- I'll stay here all day waiting for you to realise you are not getting Sinister back

Cash- Oh I'm taking her and I'm taking your life, you robots you need to die

Xykol- Ah yes but I'm not a robot

Cash- But you sure as hell are as lonely as one

Xykol- What exactly is your plan, you're not going to escape, why not just give up, theirs billions of us Xyouless, just give up

Cash- No, I'll never give up (He looks at Sinister dangling down over them)

Xykol- Lets just kill each other then!

Cash narrating over the war- (the Ghouls slowly turn against the robots and for the humans and they all attack at once as it shows Fred shake hands with Drianna and Xylozone shake hands with humans, they all attack the robots of any kind) You can't just face that this world you've built yourself is slowly collapsing around you, the heart is more valuable than the brains of you soulless beings, why crawl through heaven just to end up in hell, that's what I thought, and you know that deep down you are doing the exact same, your time on heaven has ended

(Back to the scene)

Cash- Where you shoot me or not, I'm going somewhere beginning with H, and it sure as heck ain't hell, and I'm not letting this woman suffer Satan's grip anymore, because she's special, and she doesn't go for aliens

(Xykol stares into Cash's eyes smiling)

Xykol- (He drops his gun and claps) Speech of the year, when did you turn Shakespearean as you humans so often brag about, you are nothing in this universe, we are something, you played god, and that, that was your mistake!

Cash- We can also play destroyer!

(Xykol attacks Cash and knocks the gun out of his hand and starts punching and kicking Cash to the floor and making him bleed and finally sends him flying into the hadron collider where Cash is only kept up by the machine Xykol grabs Cash's face and looks into his eyes again)

Sinister- leave him alone!

Xykol- You and Sinister, you belong together, it sickens me, she should want me, and maybe she will once you're dead (He goes to shoot his weapon but is knocked away by Xylozone and Cash struggles to acknowledge it he's in so much pain)

Xylozone- You killed my father, I'm not letting you take a friend (He smiles at Cash and Cash can just about mange one in return)

Xykol- I don't care what happens to your race (he spits in Xylozone's face, and Xylozone doesn't flinch and Foster walks up behind Xylozone with a large hammer shaped weapon and is about to kill Xylozone and Xylozone at this point worries, but Foster is killed by a bullet of water to the head by Jared, Jared smiles as Foster struggles on the floor before terminating itself from the pain)

Xylozone- Thank you (He smiles at Jared and shoots Xykol without looking at him in the heart, he stands up and closes Xykol's eyes and walks up to Jared to shake his hand)

Jared- Don't mention it

(Cash murmurs something in the corner)

Cash- Get the keys! The keys!

(Jared collects the keys from Xykol's pocket and unlocks the cage for Sinister to get out, he has to chop the rope first to lower it down, Sinister thanks him and runs to check on Cash, Jared and Xylozone check up on Cash and go back to war)

Cash- I'll see you in stone (Jared looks confused) tell Drianna and dad that too

Sinister- You ok?

Cash- Yeah just bleeding a lot, I'll be ok, you go and find the others, but stick with the ghouls and humans, don't go near the robots

Sinister- No I'll stay with you

Cash- I need all of you on the express quick as please (struggling)

Sinister- Why?

Cash- Because you know Cash, the guy who knew as a young troubled boy, the man who went to prison, he's a man now, and he's gonna go down in History, I love you, now go

Sinister- (She kisses him on the lips) I always did prefer human lips (laughs and cries slightly) I know what you're going to do, and I don't like it but thank you for everything

(A tear runs down Cash's cheek and Sinister walks away, Cash then crawls on top of the Hadron collider and looks at the buttons, robots see him and begin to walk over to Foster, to rebuild him as their main focus rather than Cash)

Cash- Ok, this won't be too hard, just a few buttons

CUT TO:

Sinister- Hey guys, we gotta go!

Drianna- Sinister, hey, thank god you're ok

Sinister- We gotta go, Cash said, let's all go the express

Xylozone- Ok, I'll tell the ghouls and Ling's we'll make our own way to Stellioplaneta, good bye and good luck with reaching earth!

Jared- Bye

Quiroz- Will we see you ghoul's around?

Xylozone- If we do it will be for a cup of coffee, not a confrontation, we won't ask questions of what the plan is, but again good luck (He goes and shouts for the ghouls to retreat and run to the express of theirs)

Steve- What's going on then where's Cash

Drianna- Dad, he told me the plan, he ain't coming with us, someone has to stay and unleash the black hole, it's the only way

Steve- (Starts to cry) I never said goodbye

Sinister- We have to go (Quiroz is shouting people as well as Jared to retreat to the express and away from the robots)

(Drianna drags Steve away from the warzone which the robots begin to lose control of what they are doing as there is no one to order them)

CUT BACK:

(Cash pushes a few buttons as Foster is brought back to life and walks towards Cash)

Cash- Done it (The machine slowly starts to work and rotate quickly)

Foster- Cash, I respect you, for you are always going to be my human friend (He shakes hands with Cash)

Cash- I'm sorry Foster lad we ended on good terms, but you're soulless and I have to do this (He slams down the red button and the black hole begins to form and sucks up both Cash and Foster in the hole both still shaking hands)

(The black hole slowly gets bigger and sucks the robots up and the large Costerates who make a large echo when they are sucked in, the humans as they walk onto the express look on and Drianna, Sinister and Steve cry as they enter and the black hole grows, the Zebfish then enter last but very quickly as they are quick runners. Same goes for Xylozone who goes in after Fred, due to his contemplation of what Cash has done)

Xylozone- Wow, you meant business, one way ticket to Stellioplaneta please (In Ghonguage)

CUT TO:

(The black hole grows and the Express of the humans slowly tries to get away from it and it just about avoids the Event horizon and the pilot confirms it of the express)

Pilot- Just to confirm according to our astronomers on the express, all humans have survived the hole and the war and the event horizon has been passed, thank you enjoy the rise

Sinister- Not all humans (looking out the window depressed as many people who knew Cash are, as the whole of Curiumite is digested by the black hole, Steve hugs Drianna to comfort her and Quiroz and Jared shakes hands)

Drianna- It's over, its over!

(As the express gets well away from the black hole and large explosion takes place behind them to confirm that Curiumite is destroyed and the robot race has gone with it)

FADES OUT:

Drianna narrating- (As the Curiumite express lands on new fresh and sci-fi looking earth, built similar to how Stellioplaneta was built, with lots of automatic transport and no cars on the road, massive houses all over the globe, newly built islands and all poverty taken away as there is nowhere on earth that hasn't been done up into a futuristic way, the animals walk free on their own islands, and the humans find houses to pick from, there planet to go round, the water is fresh and Sinister looks out to a blue whale, still swimming around like nothing's happened, the Africans and Americans shake hands and live in peace knowing that earth has improved massively, money is generated from machines like ATM's but instead they are endless with notes that the robots made showing they were more full of soul than the human thought, and they had their own economy and homes all decorated. It then shows Stellioplaneta, just as nice and peaceful with Xylozone shaking hands in front of a crowd to the Ling ghouls and they burn their religious book to confirm the end of discrimination and war between the two kinds of ghouls as the prophecy had been fulfilled in the most unlikely way, Xylozone looks out to space and the stars and smiles, and Xyborth is shown being promoted to assistant emperor) The world will never be the same again, no one will ever completely learn about what happened on that planet, or even the one we live on today, in 1000 years this will be legend, but will only cause more wars between them who believe our story, some may even route for what we thought where soulless beings, and them who find it a myth, we played the god that we have so long followed, and it burnt us, but like every fire we put it out, thanks to a man, my brother, his son (Shows Steve looking at down at his stone still not revealed), her lover (shows the same for Sinister), our very own saviour, our very own testament to dispute about, to fight about, to care about, to create stories about, to write about in our own way, and that book will be a religion and that religion will follow the man who through controversy protected us all, Cash Owen! (Zooms in on a statue of him ordering his army, named underneath the statue 'The Curium army' with Drianna placing a large book next to his tombstone, the book that she wrote placing next to a quote on his tombstone 'I'm glad to have served humanity') See you in stone brother!

THE END
